RUSSIANS ARE NEARING CRACOW

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Nov. 19, 1914. The German advance in considerable force along the narrow battle front on the west bank of the river Vistula is regarded by Russian military observers as a feint at the city of Warsaw, the intention of which is to draw Russian troops from their advance upon Cracow and distract attention from the efforts of the Germans to establish a strongly fortified defensive line from Kalisz to Cracow.

This plan also is calculated by the German authorities to relieve the German troops in East Prussia now giving way along the entire line by rendering a Russian further advance untenable. Despite this German demonstration, the converging lines of the Russian advance on the Austrian fortress of Cracow are steadily progressing, the Russians say, having now reached within two miles of that point.

The Austrians are stubbornly contesting the Russian offensive and are taking advantage of every creek and hillock in any way available for defense, but the Russian columns in South Poland already have traversed the last river between them and the fortress of Cracow.

The Russian troops form two fronts, one facing Cracow and the other facing the Carpathian mountains, where yesterday they recaptured the approaches to two of the most important passes into Hungary.

GERMANS FOLLOW UP VICTORY.
BERLIN, Nov. 19, by wireless.—In the information given out to the press today in official quarters is the following:

"Reasons of strategy prevent the disclosure of military movements in the east, yet the official reports that operations are progressing favorably indicate that the victory of Wladawa is being followed up.

"In view of the condition of the roads behind the Russians and the difficulties of a retirement for them, it seems probable that they will stand against the German attack, which, judging from the existing situation, probably will be frontal and against their right wing.

"An official report given out in Vienna says that the German victory near Kutno has had an excellent effect upon forces in Galicia, who have taken some advanced positions of the enemy in the Cracow region. Special dispatches from the Serbian arena of the conflict to Berlin papers predict the early fall of Belgrade. Coincidentally the Austrian entry into Valjevo, the commanding officer at Semlin sent an embassy to Belgrade with the demand that the city surrender. The commandant of the Belgrade fortress asked an hour for consideration. He did not reply at the end of that time and the bombardment by the Austrians was recommenced.

"The people of Valjevo scattered flowers along the roadways as the Austrians entered. At the same time some recalcitrants threw a bomb from a second story. The house whence this missile came was wrecked by the infuriated soldiers.

"The Serbians retired seven miles to the southeast of Valjevo, where fighting is now in progress."

U. S. AWAITS VERSION OF TURKS

The Navy Department Anxious Over Firing Upon Launch of Cruiser.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Although the Navy Department continued every effort to get a further report in connection with the firing upon the cruiser Tennessee's launch by the Turkish forts at Smyrna, nothing had been heard early today from Captain Decker or from Ambassador Morgenthau.

An early week was taken in getting the last message through to the State Department from the ambassador at Constantinople. Little information is expected from the State Department in the next few days. Secretary Daniels said today he would not decide whether the North Carolina and Tennessee would remain in Turkish waters until all of the facts were known concerning the firing at Smyrna. Some naval officers have urged that the cruisers be withdrawn. Officials believe, however, that missionary interests, for which the cruisers were dispatched to Turkish waters, might insist that the vessels be retained as a moral force, making for the protection of the American missions and interests.

President Wilson was determined that the United States should not be drawn into a war with Turkey, and confidence was expressed that if the Turkish officers had acted without authority of their government of the firing was unjustified by naval procedure, that the Turks would apologize.

BELIEVES IT WAS WARNING.
Secretary Daniels summed up his view of the incident by declaring he believed detailed reports would show that the firing was intended as a friendly warning to prevent the launch from entering mined waters.

"I believe that when Captain Decker's report is received it will prove that the firing was a friendly and not an unfriendly act," said the secretary.

"Reports that the waters of the Smyrna harbor are mined indicate that the shots were fired to warn the vessel against the danger of mines which it might have come into contact with had it entered the harbor."

Another explanation advanced by Mr. Daniels was that the port had been officially closed and that the approach of the vessel caused the guns of the forts to sound warning to prevent it from trespassing.

The Tennessee today was at Selo (Chios) in the Aegean Sea from where Captain Decker wired his brief report. It was believed that the vessel was being towed to Selo by cable additional details and Ambassador Morgenthau report on his inquiry of the Constantinople government.

PROTECTION PLEDGED.
Protection and friendship for American citizens in Turkey frequently have been pledged by the United States, and the United States has assumed charge of diplomatic interests of the allies with whom Turkey now is at war, resulting in conditions marked by delicate responsibilities. Activities by some Mohammedan leaders caused apprehension on the part of Americans as well as French and British subjects, and that was reported by the United States consul at Smyrna to Ambassador Morgenthau.

When an investigation of conditions at the consulate was determined upon, the Tennessee stood off at Vourla and sent a launch on the way to Smyrna. Under naval regulations, it was said, Captain Decker would have been justified in attempting to enter the harbor to inquire into affairs at the consulate, regardless of whether Smyrna port was closed.

Germans Spend Day Without Newspapers

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Nov. 19, via The Hague and London, Nov. 19, 6:11 a. m.—For the first time since the outbreak of the war, the Germans spent the day without their newspapers, the publication of which was suspended because of the religious day of repentance. The daily report from war headquarters appeared, however, but there was no means of circulating it except through bulletins posted in shop windows and by means of a telephone extract displayed in the post-offices downtown.

The streets of Berlin today were crowded with the customary thronging the crisp autumn afternoon having brought out a host of promenaders. The crowds were scarcely different from those seen in ordinary years, and there seemed to be almost as many in the usual. The spirit of the promenaders was confident as a result of the Russian defeats reported yesterday.

Russian Cavalrymen Outnumber Germans

By Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, Nov. 19, via London, 11:45 a. m.—A Russian staff officer passing through here has this to say as to the cause of the present German success in Poland:

"The Russian army in Poland maintains three times as many cavalrymen as the Germans, but this cavalry swarmed after the retreating Germans and when the Germans suddenly stopped the Russian cavalry was dashed to pieces like migrating birds flying against a rock.

"Meanwhile the main body of the Russians, 1,600,000 men, whose absolute purpose is to beat the Austrians decisively, is proceeding unimpeded to attack Cracow leaving a smaller detachment to besiege Przemyel.

"Thereafter," the officer concluded, "the Russians do not intend to attempt to cross the Carpathians, but, following the Oder river, will make their main attack on Germany by way of Oppeln, Breslau and Glogau."

Aids Austrians to Join Home Regiments

By Associated Press.
SAULT STE MARIE, Ont., Nov. 19.—Robert Sayer of this city is held in custody here on a charge of high treason. He is said to have admitted in court today that he aided six Austrians to cross the Canadian river from the United States into Canada to join their home regiments in the European war.

WEST FLANDERS CUT OFF FROM REST OF BELGIUM

By Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, via London, Nov. 19.—Advices received here from Thibet, Belgium, which were brought by way of Sas Van Gans by messenger, and are dated Monday, November 16, state that West Flanders, the scene of the most bitter fighting, is now an island cut off from the rest of Belgium through the blowing up of most of the bridges leading there.

Peasants are ordered to make emergency bridges from planks and crates along these to escape from the danger zone. The Germans have captured the territory west of the railroad running from Antwerp to Brussels and thence to Molen, an official war area where no military movement is allowed to travel without a special military passport.

It is difficult to obtain reliable news of the situation in the war zone, as the beleaguered men and women, who manage to escape, are too exhausted to give any definite account of their experiences. Their only definite recollection seems to be the continued cannon fire and the endless processions of wounded filling their villages.

It was learned from some of them, however, that the scene of each severe fighting is a complete ruin. Nieuport also suffered severely. The principal church there has lost its tower and its roof and the remembrance carvings in its interior have been destroyed. In Yper, the Cloth hall, which was one of the few ancient buildings saved from the English legs in the year 1382, is severely damaged by shrapnel fire.

In Tarmoude the Germans have ordered the evacuation of the town and the ten thousand inhabitants have been reduced to a hundred there are no people, and houses as four-fifths of the town is in ruins, there are no schools. The bridges here are likely to be cut by men of the Bavarian Landwehr.

Chem is deserted by its population, but is overflowing with German wounded. Zeebrugge, according to reports, has been made a station for submarines by the Germans. At Alost the population is beginning to return. The people are establishing themselves in shacks and in the ruins of their old homes.

From the entire province of Flanders, where the roads are full of aimlessly drifting people, come creditable reports of ever-increasing suffering and privation. Food is exceedingly scarce and many persons are suffering from hunger. The peasants are cutting down the old line trees at the country places for fuel.

Desperate to combat the ravages of the population there is supported by public charity. A similar situation exists in Mollens.

LORD ROBERTS IS BORNE TO REST FROM FRENCH TOWN

London Pays Tribute to Dead Soldier at Impressive Funeral.

Two years ago the body of the Duke of Wellington was interred in St. Paul's Cathedral.

Lord Kitchener, Secretary of War, Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, Lord Grenfell and prominent navy and army officers followed the casket bearing the flag-draped coffin through the streets.

King George was not in the procession. He drove from Buckingham Palace direct to the cathedral, which he reached shortly before the arrival of the funeral cortege. This is the first time England's King has attended the funeral of a national hero since the burial of Wellington.

Preceding the caisson was a battery of Indian artillery, given this place in honor because of Lord Roberts' life-long devotion to the Indian troops. His final visit to France was for the purpose of welcoming the Indian contingents and looking after their needs. The Sikhs, their turbans wound with khaki overcoats over their picturesque forms, led by the white mules of their battery, and Indian officers, wrapped in their khaki capes, paid silent tribute to their departed friend.

Lieutenant-General Pole-Carew and eight other officers rode beside the caisson carrying the insignia of the field marshal, while a groom walked behind leading the former chieftain's horse.

CROWDS MASS ON BRIDGES.
It required more than an hour for the military escort to pass. The three bridges over the Thames commanding the route of march along the Victoria embankment were massed with crowds, but it was with great difficulty that they could see the procession in the avenue below because of the rain and heavy fog.

A salute of nineteen guns was fired as the funeral procession left the station. Traffic had been suspended along the route and the crowds stood in absolute silence.

Long before the time fixed for the funeral services the vast cathedral was filled. The strains of the "Dead March of Saul," accompanied by the booming of guns, announced the approach of the funeral procession.

The gloomy solemnity of the cathedral was intensified by the fog which drifted in when the great doors were opened to admit the procession. The black dresses of the women and the khaki coats of the army officers harmonized with the occasion. A brilliant touch of color was afforded here and there by the robes of peers and the dress uniforms of retired officers of the army and navy.

KING GEORGE IN KHAKI.
King George was seated in khaki, the workaday uniform of a field marshal, as were all of the active officers in attendance, including Lord Kitchener. The congregation consisted of representatives of the diplomatic service and men well known in the arts, in science and literature, in the learned professions, in church and on the stage.

King George was met at the south door of the cathedral by the Bishop of London and the cathedral clergy and by them escorted to a seat under the dome and near the altar.

The service was extremely brief. The last act after the blessing had been given by the Archbishop of Canterbury was the proclamation of the late field marshal's title by the Garter King of Arms. This was followed by the playing of the "March of the Royal Artillery" and the vast audience slowly dispersed.

As soon as the congregation was cleared from the cathedral, the general public was admitted to view the catafalque, which lay in state in the crypt.

Germans Seek Refuge in Houses; Many Slain

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 19.—"A week ago," says the Daily Mail's London correspondent, "the German soldiers, who were the fire from the English, were spared the houses on the sea front at Vlissingen, where they took up quarters in them. This fact became known to the British, who suddenly bombarded the houses from five ships at once. The German casualties were enormous, the dead alone being estimated at 1700."

THINKS KAISER STAKES ALL ON POLAND BATTLE

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Post's London correspondent says that "Emperor William is staking his all upon the great battle of the building of the great German army, namely, the Hungarian army, which he has moved forward to his position of defense. He has staked his hopes on crushing France, and this battle must decide the fate of Germany's whole adventure."

HEAVY FIGHTING IN FLANDERS.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 19, 12:07 p. m.—The unexpected blow delivered on the Russian center by General Von Hindenburg, with the German army which had retreated before Warsaw, was the predominant feature of the news reaching London today from the eastern arena of the war.

No change of importance has been recorded for some days past in the western arena, where Flanders is still the scene of heavy fighting. In spite of adverse weather conditions and flooded trenches the Germans appear to be holding their position from which, at intervals, they launch attacks for which the territory from the Belgian coast to Arras has become famous.

The allied warships are still off the coast, hurling shells inland when opportunity offers. The Belgian army remains in the region, where the floods have been the worst, and some dispatches say that in certain places they have been fighting from small boats.

CHECK RUSSIAN ADVANCE.

Having for the time being thrown back the Russian advance toward the German frontier of Posen, General Von Hindenburg is the hero of the hour in Berlin. There is much criticism in Berlin of the German retreat from Warsaw, but if the present withstanding the German position, it will retrieve its reputation, just as the allies retrieved themselves almost at the gates of Paris.

The German wedge from Posen would appear to have driven the Russian wedge from the front, so that the line is about midway between German territory and Warsaw. Elsewhere along the great eastern front the Russians, where they are not progressing, seem to be holding their own.

ACTIVITY IN FRANCE.

PARIS, Nov. 19, 2:45 p. m.—The French official announcement given out by the war office this afternoon says:

"On the north yesterday was marked by a renewal of activity on the part of the enemy's artillery, particularly between the Meuse and the Vosges. There were no infantry attacks in this region.

"Between the Oise and the Aisne the operations in the vicinity of Tracy-Le-Val have a decided character favorable for our troops. It will be remembered that we took possession of this village several days ago. The day before yesterday the Germans endeavored to recapture it. After heavy fighting, they were repulsed, and succeeded in making their way as far as the central square of the village. Here, however, a vigorous attack delivered by our Algerian contingents drove the enemy back, wrested from him all the ground he had lost, and inflicted on him heavy losses.

"In the Argonne we have maintained our position. Along the rest of the front there is nothing new to report."

AVIATORS CLASH.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Nov. 19, via Marconi wireless to London, 3 p. m.—A German official communication given out in Berlin today says:

"The situation in West Flanders and in the north of France is unchanged. A German aviation squadron encountered some of the enemy's aviators while making a reconnaissance flight and caused them to descend, one of them falling. One of our pilots was killed in the fighting.

"A German fighter attack in the region of Seron, on the western front, of the Argonne front, was repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. Our loss was small."

"In the eastern theatre of the war the active commenced battles are proceeding."

FLOOD BLOCKS ROADS.

PARIS, Nov. 19, 11:11 a. m.—A brilliant attack by British troops and French sailors caused the Germans to evacuate Schoorbaek, Belgium, from its position, surrounded by water from the broken dykes, according to news reaching here from the battle front.

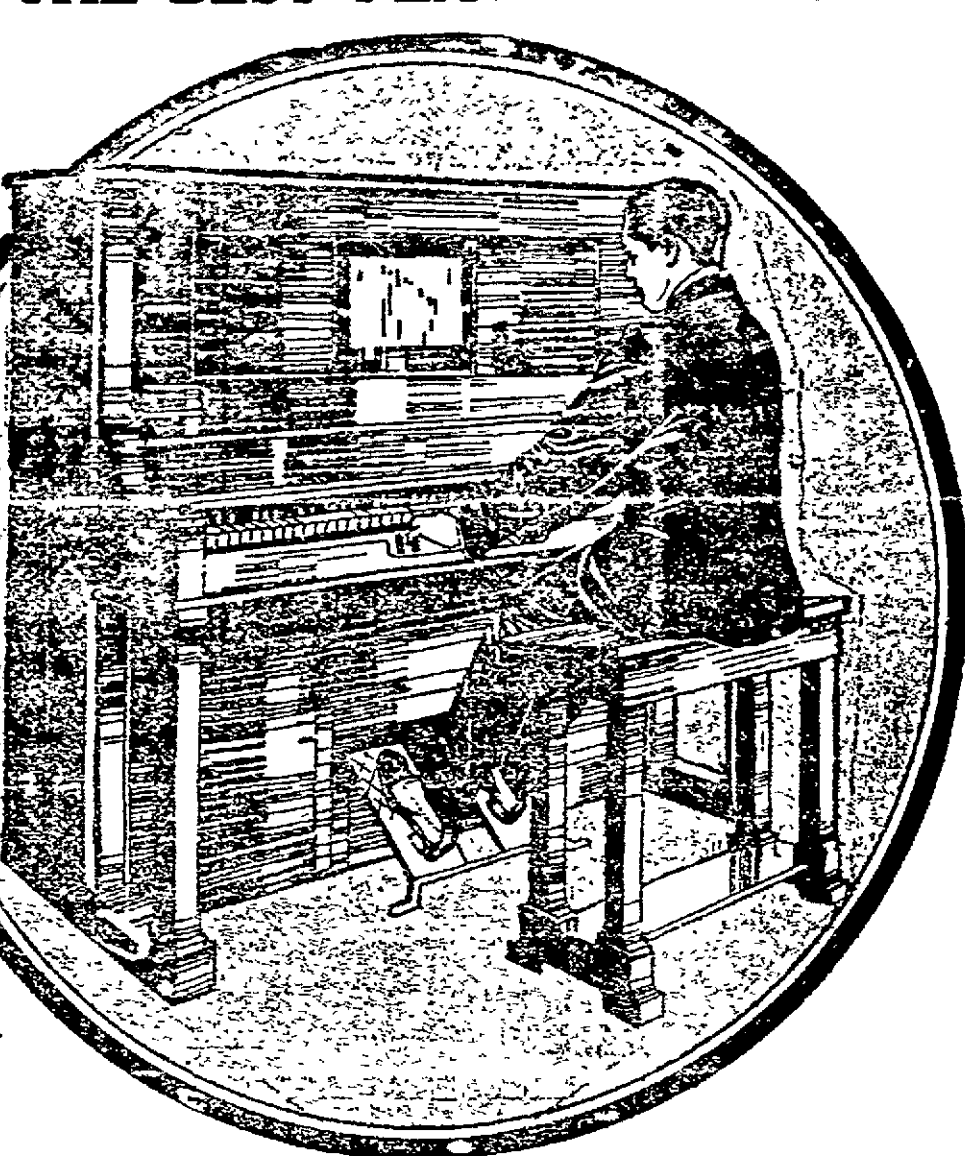

Because of the flood only two roads lead up to the town, and one of these the British captured in the night. The situation is so critical that the Germans have crossed the water and took the Germans in the rear, forcing them to flee by the one road and left open. The Germans abandoned many guns, ammunition and stores and their dead and wounded. There is some anxiety lest the loss of water from the broken dykes, according to news reaching here from the battle front.

REPLY IS MADE BY THE GOVERNOR

Honey Says He Will Tell About the Symptoms of Graft.

Governor Hiram Johnson has not received an official report about the alleged illegal registration in this county.

The following article is from the Sacramento Bee:

"Statements have been made in the San Francisco Examiner to the effect that report has been made to Governor Hiram W. Johnson of graft conditions alleged to be prevailing in Alameda county.

"Relative to this report the Governor today said:

"Neither a official nor formal report, as suggested by the Examiner was made to me."

"The news story in the Examiner said a member of the Committee of One Hundred, Oakland citizens was a source for the information that the report had been made to the governor."

Francis Honey is going to address a mass meeting here Friday night and tell what he says, appears to him, to be symptoms of graft.

The committee of six in charge of the affair, will receive a section of the hall at $1 a seat for the purpose of raising funds to pay expenses.

Hugh Craig, defeated candidate for County Assessor, and Captain Parsons, the route agent of the San Francisco Examiner, are the active members of the committee. Mr. Craig would like to see Mr. Hornor, who defeated him, put out of office. Hornor beat Craig by 12,112 votes, showing how "popular" the ex-mayor of Piedmont is with the people.

The Examiner is working through its agent, Parsons, trying to stir up a nasty row at the expense of Oakland and for the benefit of San Francisco. District Attorney Hynes will not be at the Honey meeting. He is minding his business and attending to the duties of his office.

Arthur Arlett and James M. Oliver, members of the special committee of the Alameda County Progressive committee, who drafted a report on the election frauds, went to Sacramento yesterday and presented to Governor Johnson the suggestion that District Attorney Hynes be offered the services of Attorney General Webb's office for an investigation of the primary election frauds.

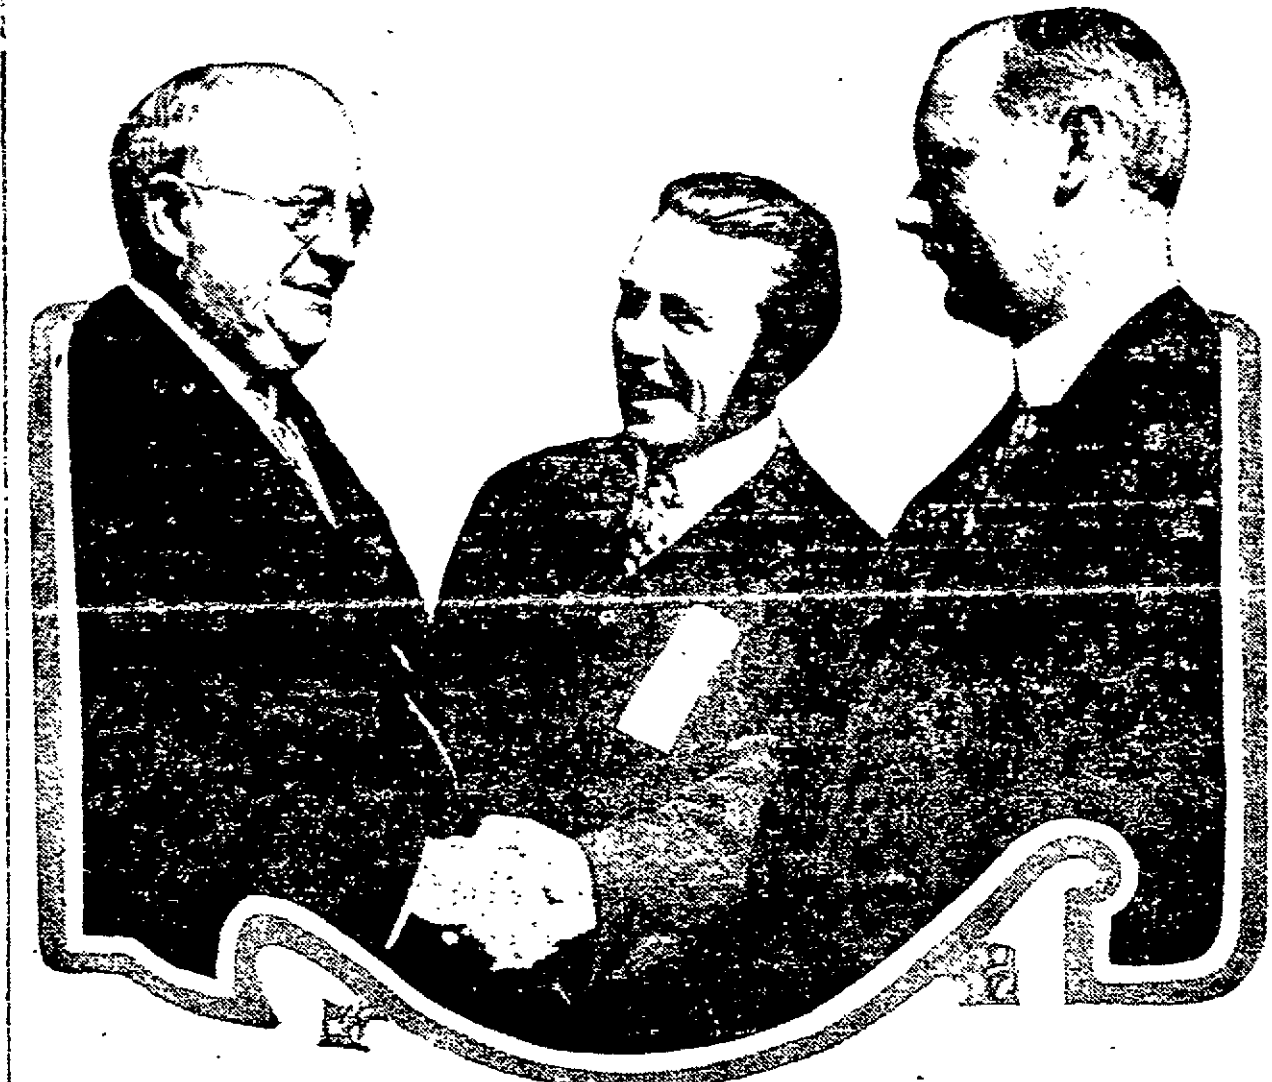

On their return to Oakland Arlett and Oliver said that they had impressed on the Governor the fact that they held great confidence in Hynes and did not want the suggestion to be construed as a lack of faith in the district attorney.

Governor Johnson, according to Arlett and Oliver replied that he too held great confidence in Hynes and would not offer the help of the Attorney-General's office unless that was requested by Hynes.

Representative newspapermen from many states will attend the ceremonies. The building will be fitted with reception and lounge rooms, work rooms and ample telephone and telegraph connections for cut of town correspondents.

OAKLAND WELCOMES LAWYERS REALTY DEALERS BARRISTERS HOLD CONCLAVE OPEN SESSION

WILLIAM J. HUNSAKER OF LOS ANGELES, PRESIDENT OF THE CALIFORNIA BAR ASSOCIATION (ON THE LEFT), IS SHAKING HANDS WITH T. M. ROBINSON, HIS TOWNSMAN AND SECRETARY OF THE STATE ORGANIZATION. ANDREW J. WOOD OF SAN FRANCISCO, UNOFFICIAL MASTER OF CEREMONIES AT THE BIG CONVENTION (IN THE CENTER), CAUSED THE TWO SOUTHERNS TO COME TOGETHER THIS.

calendar including the selection of a nominating committee, reports of the secretary, treasurer and executive committee and the report of the section on constitutional amendments.

M. C. Chapman said, in his opening address:

"The pleasure that we have so long anticipated has come at last. We know you better now, and therefore we cordially invite you to hold your next annual meeting here. Many thousands of people are interested in you and in the work you represent, and in your being here, and for all these we thank you."

"I want to congratulate you on the quality of your program, which is of interest to the lawyer and to the layman. It offers discussions which cannot fail to instruct and inspire. You have our best wishes for a successful meeting, and you will go forth with a consciousness of knowledge gained, and of the happiness which is in service."

JUDICIARY AGAINST CHANGE.

State President Hunsaker, in the president's annual address, discussed the tendencies of the judiciary in America to stand against radical changes in the law.

"Such criticism," he said, "of the point of view of the court as appear in this paper will be rested upon the language of wise and conservative judges and care has been taken not to quote from dissenting opinion, which too often is intolerant in spirit and intemperate in language."

Judge Hunsaker then repeated extracts from the writing of Supreme Justice Holmes and Supreme Justice Moody to show that the courts have been extremely conservative. He said:

"The authority of the court to declare an act of congress or of the state legislature of no effect because in conflict with the provisions of either the federal or state constitution is one of tremendous importance and peculiar to our governmental system. It has been said the people are dissatisfied with the court, but they are not so in the eyes of the people."

"What the people do ask and have the right to ask is that statutes be interpreted and enforced according to the intent of the legislature and that no statute be declared unconstitutional or its purpose frustrated because the court does not approve of its policy or expediency."

SCORES PRESIDENT WHEELER.

Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, one of the most prominent women lawyers in the state, who is attending the convention, today advised Oakland women to go over President Wheeler's head and use militant to obtain the use of the Greek Theater for the Belgian concert.

"The man must be insensible to the sufferings of others, deaf to the cries of hungry children and the moans of aged mothers," Mrs. Foltz declared. "I cannot understand his action. Does he think that he is a dictator that he dares presume to deprive the people of the use of the Greek Theater at Berkeley for so humanitarian a move? Does he think that this is a movement that he can block by a technicality?"

"If he does and the women of Oakland and the other east bay cities will force through legal measures they can force the hand of this man whose heart is so hard that he is dumb to the misery of the poor Belgians."

OAKLAND JURISTS HOSTS.

Registration of delegates consumed the principal time of this morning, and further registrations were scheduled this afternoon. Tomorrow will be the important business day of the convention, when the "Annual Address" a memorial to late Supreme Justice Beatty, reports of the principal sections on legislative changes and other details of the sessions will be considered.

Chief Justice Matt L. Sullivan and Judge Walter Borah of Los Angeles will be the principal speakers of the session. Judge Borah having been chosen to deliver the "Annual Address."

Several prominent Los Angeles attorneys arrived this morning, accompanying the Los Angeles reality men's delegation in one party, and joining with them in spreading their boost literature, praising the south, through every town at which the train stopped.

The local committees in charge of the reception of the guests and the banquet, as appointed by M. C. Chapman, president of the Oakland Association, includes the following: R. M. Fitzgerald, W. H. L. Hynes, Harmon Bell, Jesse J. Dunn, Manley Clark, George de Golla, Fred G. Osterlander, C. A. Boardley, C. E. Snook, J. B. Richardson and George W. Reed.

Several changes in the constitution of the association were recommended by the executive committee. Most important of these was one to permit the annual meeting to be held in any month, not in November, as now required. The purpose is to enable the California association to meet at the same time and place as the American Bar Association, which will convene next year in California.

At adjournment the Oakland association provided automobiles in which to convey the visitors through the east bay cities.

"Open court" will be held this evening when Chief Justice Matt L. Sullivan will discuss "Law's Delay and Remedies Suggested."

The program for tomorrow and Saturday is:

Annual address. Subject, "The Judges of Our Courts," by Hon. Walter Borah.

Reports Cerro Negro Volcano in Eruption

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Volcanic ash from the belching crater of Cerro Negro in Nicaragua is said to have fallen in great quantities on the city of Leon, and has been blown 25 miles to the decks of ships in Corinto harbor. Commander Ziekmeyer of the cruiser Denver reported today to the navy department. During the early part of the month the report stated, two columns of smoke arose from the crater and at night the burning lava mingling with the smoke resulted in a "fountain-like appearance."

Cerro Negro is in the neighborhood of several active volcanoes, but this is its first eruption.

Brewers' Association Holds Convention

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—A general discussion of the prohibition movement occupied the sessions of the United States Brewers' association convention. The board of trustees in their annual report made the statement that the government by grace of the new tax on beer now is getting three times as much revenue from beer as it was getting in 1913.

The trustees also pointed out that during the last half of 1913 beer sales decreased 25 per cent. due, they said, to disturbed business conditions. During July August and September of this year the business decreased 10 per cent, as compared with the same period the previous year.

THUGS BEAT FIREMEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Three men held up E. W. Anderson, a marine fireman at Battery and Pacific streets, at 4 o'clock this morning, beat him to the sidewalk and threw him into a vacant lot. He was unconscious for some time, but finally made his way to the Harbor Hospital, where several wounds on his head were dressed. He says he was robbed of $40.

REALTY DEALERS OPEN SESSION

praises of southern California. A big Fresno delegation, styled as "Raisin Eaters" immediately on their arrival, also brought with them souveners and boost literature for their section of the country.

A brief session of the board of directors preceded the formal opening of the convention this morning. After the first of the directors' routine business had been completed, Mayor Mott called the session to order, introducing Mayor Mott, who welcomed the guests of the city in the following address:

WELCOMING BY MAYOR.

Mr. President and Members of the California State Realty Federation: This is a momentous day to the people of California, for it is the day when the city's welcome to you is hearty and open-handed cannot be too strongly put. My pleasant duty this morning is to give you the word of greeting on behalf of the city, which shall assure you of our pleasure in having the opportunity to make as delightful as we can your stay here.

The California State Realty Federation, with which I am proud to be associated, is an organization which has for its main purpose the furtherance of the best business methods that can be applied to the handling of realty and collateral activities in this state. The Federation's card is a justification for its existence. There is a special need for its continued service in the development of California at this time. We are rapidly approaching a period when, with the active operation of the Panama Canal, there will be a vast influx of immigration into California.

That movement will come not only from the south but from the end of the conflict abroad, will undoubtedly be on an enormous scale from Europe. This federation has an important work ahead of it to intelligently handle the problems that will arise from this new situation.

WORK FOR FEDERATION.

Increase in population will mean not only urban growth but the development of California's wonderful agricultural and horticultural wealth of resources on a stupendous scale. To meet these conditions this federation has a big job to do on its hands. This organization will play no small part in this great army of homebuilders' quest. In this connection I am glad to observe that the city has been given a prominent place on the program of this convention in the topics assigned to Dean Hunt of the University of California, to Mr. Whittey, president of the Tourist Association of Central California, to Dr. Lynch, manager of the California Development Board and others.

The program of the city federation is alive to the problems of the day that specially appeal to its members. It is indicative of the broad and progressive attitude of the organization toward the state and presages the federation's usefulness in the important work ahead.

We, of Oakland, are interested equally with the entire city in advancing the program of improvement, to continue the program of improvement, which has marked our activities in recent years. We of the Oakland Real Estate Association are hand in hand with the state federation in harmony and full sympathy with its large policies of mutual benefit.

We are ready to go forward and to continue the program of improvement, which has marked our activities in recent years. We of the Oakland Real Estate Association are hand in hand with the state federation in harmony and full sympathy with its large policies of mutual benefit.

ing more than $10,000. Subsequently he went to Grass Valley. While there, he avers, he received a request from Noyes to return, that the latter had gotten in touch with eastern book-makers and could assure him of making large winnings on the races. He declares on his arrival he was introduced to Welbourne by Noyes, the three deciding to go into business at 224 Powell street. Subsequently Frank Patterson and Fred Tichenor were taken into the combine. Lyons asserts he put up $800 and it was agreed that Noyes was to bet the money after receiving the "tip." The profits were to be divided on an almost equal basis. Tichenor's share to be less than the others. When the $800 was gone, without profit, Lyons says Noyes told him that if he would hand over $300 more they would make a cleanup. He did so, but the result was the same—they lost. Finally he avers he was induced to buy three racehorses, paying $200 apiece for them. Finally, becoming convinced that something was wrong, he thought he would appeal to the police, and for days the accused men have been kept under surveillance.

Leadville Tenderloin Wiped Out by Fire

LEADVILLE, Colo., Nov. 19.—The Leadville tenderloin district, famous for its saloons and dance halls in the pioneer days of violence and riotous celebration of sudden wealth, was swept away by fire early today. The damage was not heavy, as most of the buildings were flimsy wooden shacks which had stood since the boom days following the discovery of silver in the hills.

Heyer Arraigned on Check Passing Charge

Charles W. Heyer Jr., son of C. W. Heyer, cashier of the German Savings Bank of San Francisco, was arraigned before Judge George Samuels this morning on a charge of passing a check for $900 on A. J. Mount, cashier of the Central National Bank of Oakland when he had no funds in the bank. The case is said to have grown out of a misunderstanding as to date and will undoubtedly be dismissed. Young Heyer explained to the police and to Judge Samuels that his father had agreed to place that amount to his account in the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Oakland, on which institution the check was drawn. Heyer Jr. did not understand that the money was to be placed in the bank immediately and the delay resulted in a warrant being issued. The amount now has been made good and the explanation offered by father and son will result in the complaining witness, Cashier Mount, asking for dismissal.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Nov. 19.—Universal peace, more general brotherhood and an increase in mission work will be the outcome of the European war, in the opinion of Bishop E. R. Herdric of Kansas City who today addressed the International Medical Missionary Conference in session here. "The preparations for the war have been so gigantic and the ensuing slaughter so fearful," said Bishop Herdric, "that the feeling of mission among men and nations will be a potent force for peace and brotherhood."

U. S. REASSURES MEAT CONSUMERS

Infected Animals Not Dangerous if Flesh Is Thoroughly Cooked.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—To reassure consumers who fear to eat meat because of the foot and mouth disease, the Department of Agriculture issued a statement yesterday stating that if thoroughly cooked, the meat of an infected animal was not dangerous.

"In the case of meat, as in the case of milk," the statement said, "it must be remembered that all herds which actually show the disease are quarantined and neither milk nor meat from the sick animal can be sold. Sixty per cent of the meat used in this country is produced in the nearly nine hundred federally inspected slaughtering and packing establishments located in 240 cities. In these establishments no animal is slaughtered until it has passed an ante-mortem inspection and also a most rigid post-mortem inspection by a veterinarian at the time of slaughter. After slaughter its meat, the organs, the establishment until it has been carefully examined and stamped 'U. S. inspected and passed.' In all these establishments no animal showing any symptoms whatever of foot and mouth disease is allowed to go to slaughter, and no meat which is found to be infected is permitted to be shipped out of the establishment.

"All meat suspected of coming from an animal suffering with this complaint is sent under government seal to the nearest government inspection station. There, under government seal, the meat is cooked and sterilized. Those who are located near an infected region and wish to be absolutely certain of the safety of their meat should cook it thoroughly."

DANSANT OPENS GALA SEASON SOCIETY TURNS OUT EN MASSE

Parisian Gowns Woven
Into Brilliant Colors
of Ballroom

Hotel Oakland Gala Scene of Hesitation Waltz
and Tango

OAKLAND society settled a moot question last night, and settled it under the most favorable auspices. The new fox trot won't be as popular as the tango. There's no doubt about it—the big opening soiree dansant at the Hotel Oakland proved it. Society was there en masse, and its decree was final. Incidentally, Miss Louise La Gal, famed dancer, who was a feature of the evening, avoided the dance—she even stopped the orchestra once when it struck up its lively bars. The maxixe, three-step, and the hesitation waltz still reign supreme.

Gay with color and sparkling with vivacity the first of the season's dansants last night placed itself in the annals of social history as one of the biggest successes of several seasons. Society was out in force, and the tables about the big ballroom were transformed into great masses of color, almost like huge flowers, as the vari-colored gowns of the guests shimmered under the great chandeliers.

The new fashion of wearing flowers at the shoulder, the new ivory and antique combs, and high head dresses, the minaret gown, all were on the scene.

The real fun of the evening did not start until after the Seydel-Capwell wedding, when the guests from that affair arrived at the hotel. At about 10 o'clock the ballroom floor was crowded.

Miss La Gal, noted dancer, and Quentin Tod, her partner, proved surprises. Offering their own conception of the waltz, a dreamy symphony of motion ending in a whirl and a flourish, a new maxixe, and some Russian dances, they drew round after round of applause from the big gathering. No one suspected that the little French woman who tripped so lightly over the floor was dancing under difficulties, and was almost seriously ill. Miss La Gal smiled, pirouetted, and went through the steps as if she hadn't a care in the world, although she had risen from a sick bed to dance for Oakland society.

SEE HAD TO WORK

"But that's all right!" she averred. "The excitement is very good for one. It's all a matter of determination, and I won't let a cold stop my work."

Miss La Gal had rivals too, although she wasn't at all jealous. Oakland society women are natural dancers, Douglas Crane said last year. That agrees. The floor last night proved it.

One of the features of the evening was the dancing of Maryly Krusi of Alameda. Through the mazes of every dance tripped the little maid in pink, while all eyes followed. Miss Marie Tyson drew "Ohs" and "Ahs" by new and charming steps appended to a number of the dances. Mrs. "Bud" Havens, a vision in white and silver, tripped through dance after dance, and was throughout the evening the center of a ray crowd of admirers. Other notable dancers on the floor were Miss Jessamine Horton, Mrs. Carlton Gardner, Miss Ann Barbour, Miss Dorothy Taft, Mrs. J. Walter Scott, Mrs. Wickham Havens, Miss Adele Scott, Mrs. Edward Engs, Mrs. R. D. Huntington, Mrs. William McLaughlin, Mrs. Challen Parker, Miss Aileen Edoff, Miss Alfreda Wright, Mrs. Harry Thomas and Miss Alice Williams.

MILK DISAPPROVES

They tried the fox trot early in the evening. Some enjoyed it. Some laughed at it. The scores weren't enthusiastic, and hesitations and one-steps, with two of new three-steps filled the interval before they tried it again, with a larger crowd. This time it was applauded a little more—not much. As Miss La Gal rose to dance the orchestra started it again. Miss La Gal shook her head, and signalled the musicians for other music. The waltz was substituted. The new three-step, on the contrary, did please, and it was danced several times during the evening.

Many gay parties gathered at the different tables, a large number of hostesses choosing the dansant as a novel way of entertaining guests. Frank Edoff presided at a large party, among whom were Miss Aileen Edoff, Miss Esperance Gilriddle, Miss Helen Bon, Miss Dorothy Taft, Miss Elfreda Wright, Lawrence Nicol, Dr. A. S. Kelly, W. B. Bryan, Harry Bruning, Ralph Palmer and Joseph E. King.

Mrs. E. H. Lohman entertained at another party, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Racheider, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Millwain. Miss Dorothy Patterson, a Fresno belle, with Miss Laura Curry and Miss Anne Barbour, were the guests of Mrs. R. C. Curry. Blaine

Rogers, Frank Hall and Cyrus Wilder were also guests in this party.

One of the largest parties in the ballroom was the Wickham Havens party, which soon joined with the Harold Havens party and others into a gay crowd. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newell and Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce Johnson also entertained parties.

The big dansant proved, beyond peradventure of a doubt, one important fact for society this year. America needn't worry if the war balks the French fashions. There are plenty more where those have gone, for last night showed some really remarkable creations. Among the striking gowns of the evening the following were notable:

Saturday=Our 3d Annual Dolls' Tea Party

On the Roof Garden from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M.

A Cup and Saucer will be Given Each Little Guest

Every mother of a little Doll—whether it be the smallest rag baby or a high-toned lady doll dressed in silk—is invited to come to our Dolls' Tea Party next Saturday afternoon.

There will be music and souvenirs and Santa Claus will be master of ceremonies.

The two big new elevators just finished will assure all quick transportation to the Roof Garden. We shall expect all the little girls and their chums. The hours will be from 2:30 to 5:30 and the place will be on the Roof Garden.

Our little guests will be served with hot chocolate and wafers in the refreshment rooms

Because of the large crowds that attend the Dolls' Tea Party, we shall use two big refreshment rooms, so that there will be no crush or danger of little ones becoming lost.

As This Is a Dolls' Tea Party Every Little Girl Must Bring Her Doll Along

While only the children and their Dolls will be served refreshments, parents are invited to come with the children who are too small to come alone.

3000 Cups and Saucers Given Away

We have had brought all the way from across the sea for this Dolls' Party these dainty and pretty Tea Cups and Saucers—pretty blue and white affairs—and after each little guest has had her chocolate from one of these—she may take it home with her in a little paper bag which will be provided.

Things to Remember:

Every little girl must bring her doll.

Santa Claus will be there. There'll be the music you like.

After you have had your refreshments go down to the Third Floor and see the

Model Doll Show and All the New Toys

that Santa Claus has brought this year. You'll find thousands of things to interest you in this big Toy Shop.

Tell all the little girls you know about the party, for they are all invited.

Santa Claus Says:

"I want to see all my little friends at the Tea Party Saturday Afternoon."

AN INVITATION

Dear little girls, we want you all
To come next Saturday.
Put on your hats and take your doll,
And start without delay.

From two till five you'll have great fun.
Old Santa will be there;
He'll give something to every one,
So for the time prepare

Our doll's tea-party every year
With joy we celebrate.
No little girl need have a fear;
Now don't forget the date.

Be sure that Dolly's face is clean
And comb her hair so neat;
At lunch time Dollies should be seen
All nice and clean and sweet.

And when the happy time is o'er,
Please don't forget to stop
To see the dolls on the third floor,
Where Santa has his shop.

STAGE DRIVER IS SHOT BY BANDITS

Three Suspects Are Captured After Wounding of Two Men.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 19.—Albert Schatzky, driver of an automobile stage between Spokane and Deer Park, Wash., was probably fatally wounded and Henry Carrow, his father-in-law, was shot through the shoulder when three masked bandits held up the stage last night on the county road two miles below the city limits.

The machine was riddled with bullets before it could be stopped by the wounded driver, who had fallen across the wheel when a bullet struck him in the back and another lodged in his hip. According to F. H. Wilson, the only passenger in the car, the robbers began firing as they rushed out of their hiding place and gave the order to halt. After taking the pocketbooks from their three victims, the highwaymen ordered them to drive on, forcing the wounded driver to remain at the wheel, and compelling the other two men to assist him, while they disappeared in the darkness. The robbers secured in all about $12.

Deputy sheriffs, aided by bloodhounds from a nearby ranch, failed tonight to pick up the trail of the bandits. J. E. Riley, a waiter, Norman Garfield, a farmer, and F. A. Smith, also in a ranch hand, were arrested here late last night, charged with highway robbery. According to the police, the prisoners have been identified as the men that held up the Deer Park stage.

CATTLEMAN FACE LOSS; PROTEST HOLDING STOCK

BILLINGS, Mont., Nov. 19.—More than 40,000 sheep and 1000 cattle, many of them ready for market and all in shape for shipment within four weeks, are being held in the local yards, and it is estimated that more than 80,000 more head of sheep and several thousand cattle are being fattened in neighboring valleys, none of which can be shipped under the present federal quarantine order.

IBERO-AMERICANS FORM LEAGUE FOR 1915 FAIR

In addition to any individual participation in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition to be held by Spain and the various Latin-American republics a movement has been started by Ibero-Americans of San Francisco to provide a joint partition in the movement. Consuelo Count del Valle de Salazar, of Spain, is honorary president and Consul General Encarnacion Mejia of Salvador, dean of the local consular corps, is honorary vice-president.

The local organization is communicating with the Spanish societies of the Americans and concerted action is expected immediately. Entertainments and social functions will be given to raise additional money and an invitation is to be extended to Spain and the South Central American countries to have a part in constructing the partition.

BASEBALL RIFT IN COMMERCIAL CLUB

Neither Team Wants Second Place: Both Claim Same Players.

The Manufacturers' committee baseball team is again out of luck. First, no one would play with them while they used Varner K. ("Shorty") Sturges' new spring bat that sent a ball out like a German design gun, and now the Commercial Club team doesn't want to play with them because they say they can't play against themselves. They're two separate teams, but they both are members of the same organization now. The Manufacturers' team say that the Commercial Club players are theirs, and the Commercial Club players claim the Manufacturers' stars for their team.

The trouble started when the Commercial Club team tried to draft Fletcher Marvdel, the sensational southpaw, of the Manufacturers' team. The Manufacturers' said that they'd trade him for first baseman J. E. Perkins, but the Commercial Club then declared that Perkins was no longer first baseman, that they'd taken Sturges off the Manufacturers' team.

BRITISH WAR LOAN NOT SUBJECTED TO RUSH

LONDON, Nov. 19.—There has been a steady demand, but no particular rush on the Central banks to get the prospectuses of the new British war loan of 350,000,000 pounds ($1,750,000,000) interest 3 1/2 per cent, price 95 and redeemable at par, March 1, 1925.

Consequently the opportunities for the public to come in touch with this loan are wider than usual. The stock exchange views the loan as a good investment and some measure may be taken to float another loan.

REV. PALMER TO LECTURE. Rev. Albert W. Palmer, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, will give the first discourse of a series of five lectures on Sunday evening next. The subject of the series is "Imaginary Occupations," and the first subdivision will be under the caption, "If I Were the Proprietor of a Great Newspaper." The series of lectures is under the auspices of the Men's League of the church, and the public is invited to attend.

CHINESE KILLS COUNTRYMAN. PRESNO, Nov. 19.—An unknown Chinese walked into a store in Chinatown about 10:20 o'clock last night and fired six shots at a patron of the place, Lee Gou, four of the shots taking effect. Two were fatal. The murderer escaped and has not yet been apprehended. As far as known Lee was not a member of any tong. He was a farm cook, about 50 years old.

Thin Men and Women

Here's a Safe Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and band them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony ankle and projecting point. Good food, drug stores and other good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesalers, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

RETIRED CITY FIREMAN HAD PILES 20 YEARS; AKOZ MADE HIM WELL

John W. Reilly, Former Inspector of Engines, Has Words of Praise for Remedy.

John W. Reilly, of Ninety-fourth and Hillside streets, Elmhurst, retired member of the San Francisco Fire Department, says that in all the years he was in the department he never found a remedy that relieved his case of piles as Akoz did. Mr. Reilly, one of the oldest retired men, was with engine No. 1 from 1867 to 1875 and the last seventeen years of active service was inspector of engines. Before the fire he resided at 1111 Oak street. He says:

JOHN W. REILLY.

"I had bleeding piles for twenty years, sometimes so bad I was nearly driven frantic. Trying all kinds of remedies and spending lots of money for different treatments did not do me much good, and I was beginning to think that I would always have them. After hearing so much about Akoz from many firemen I decided to give it a trial. I got relief right away from the external treatment and the mineral water taken internally has done much to get at the cause. My general health has improved wonderfully and I feel like a young man again. It certainly gives me much pleasure to recommend such a wonderful remedy as Akoz, and I hope that my friends will be benefited by reading this letter. I know that if they once use Akoz they will say the same as I."

Akox is just as effective in cases of rheumatism, stomach, kidney and bladder trouble, ulcers, eczema and other skin diseases. Sold at all druggists in Oakland, or write the Natura Co., 512 Mission street, San Francisco, Suite 375, for further information regarding this advertisement.

Plans for National Defense.

Militarism has never been popular in the United States and never will be. Republics are usually antagonistic to large standing armies, the government of France being a notable exception for reasons that are too obvious to require explanation.

For some time, commencing soon after the close of the Spanish-American war, there has been a feeling that the enlarged field occupied by the United States through the acquisition of insular possessions both in the Atlantic and the Pacific, and the construction of the Panama Canal, this government should take such steps as may be necessary for the protection of its many interests.

Naval authorities have contended that the navy is too small and every chief of staff, since the adoption of the general staff plan, has argued for a greater military establishment.

Some of the leading legislators of the land have endorsed the plans for increase, others have opposed it. As a result the increase in naval strength has been a compromise arrangement. The Navy Department asks for four battleships and gets two, for twenty destroyers and gets ten, and so on while the army has not been increased to any appreciable extent. As a rule the Republican party has stood for an adequate navy adapted to the needs of the country, while the Democratic party has opposed rapid growth. Exceptions have been noted on the part of legislators in both parties, particularly Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama, whose constant appeals to arm against Japan were couched in such extravagant language as to do the cause more harm than good.

The Democratic party, represented in this phase of statesmanship by Secretary of State Bryan, has been arguing for peace through arbitration, and as a result of efforts on his part treaties have been signed with most of the leading nations of the earth, providing that all cases of international dispute shall be submitted to arbitration, which is an excellent policy.

But since the war in Europe began it is pointed out that under stress of belligerent necessity, treaties count for nothing; that they are "mere scraps of paper." Hence we are informed by expert and layman alike that we should prepare for lasting peace by preparing to successfully carry on a war if attacked. Chief among those advocating an increase in army and navy is a former president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, who not only argues for his pet theory, but condemns with his characteristic vigor of utterance any and all who oppose him. While admitting that the colonel is a well informed man on every topic in which humanity, civilized or barbarian, bond or free, Christian or paynim, is interested, we do not feel like taking his ipse dixit as final.

He has been reinforced recently by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts, who has pointed out our defencelessness in sharp words, and now General Wetherspoon in a report to the Secretary of War emphasizes the utterances in an official report in which he declares if attacked we could not successfully defend the Panama Canal, on which we have expended so many hundreds of millions, or Alaska, or the Philippines, or Hawaii, or our sea coast generally, and who urges an increase in the army, while Admiral Dewey on the same day makes a secret report to his immediate superior asking for four battleships, fifteen submarines and from fourteen to sixteen gunboats as urgent necessities.

Wetherspoon and Dewey are experts in the art of war in their varied lines. They may be said to speak with authority. Their suggestions are worthy of serious consideration. But there are other matters coincident. It is no doubt the policy of the Democratic party to grant the Philippines independence as soon as possible and for that reason may be the intention of the leaders of that party to argue that with the islands free and independent, the necessity for a great navy in the Pacific will have passed. But it is noted that the plan contemplates guaranteeing that independence, and how can guarantees be enforced against great powers that might covet the islands without adequate force?

On the other hand it appears to be Republican policy to hold the Philippines for an indefinite time, until the peoples resident shall have acquired the ability for self government, which it is maintained they now do not possess. In such an event the naval force will be necessary in order to avoid the possibility of their being taken away from us by a stronger power. It appears to THE TRIBUNE as if the Pacific situation is the real key to the problem of national defense, with the canal secondary. That the first blow a hostile force would strike would be against the insular holdings of the United States and the next at the Canal or perhaps at both simultaneously. Assuming this to be true it looks as if the policy of creating an adequate navy suggested by the Republican party is the best guarantee of safety, for if we propose continuing as a world power we must be prepared to back up any proposition we may suggest.

As to the increase in the army, there is little doubt that if we are in danger of attack as has been suggested, it should be increased. It has been urged always that the volunteer forces are an adequate first line of defense ashore when mingled with regulars, but that is proving a fallacy. The militia has been subverted in its real duties so many times it is not as popular as it once was. Instead of being a militia for national defense it has too often been used as a police force and by such course of conduct has lost much of its power for good. The plan of General Wetherspoon appears to have many practical points in it and will no doubt engage the serious attention of Congress, although at this session we do not expect many changes for the increase of either the army or the navy. However, following the return of the Republican party to power in the nation, we can predict with confidence that these subjects will be taken up and given that careful consideration and conservative action for which that organization has been long celebrated.

Millions in Growing Pork.

The Southern Pacific has entered the campaign for interesting the farmers of California in growing pork and is sending out some interesting literature on this subject. One startling statement relates that $20,000,000 are sent out of California every year for pork, and that while the population is increasing, hog raising is decreasing.

This enormous sum ought not to go to other states, because the climate here lends itself to the successful and economical production of pork. But there seems to be an idea prevalent that pork cannot be successfully grown except with corn as a finishing product. But this idea is erroneous. California has alfalfa and barley in abundance and tests made at the Colorado Agricultural College show that from pens of ten pigs each fed on various rations, the lot that stood second in the greatest gain was fed on California feed barley.

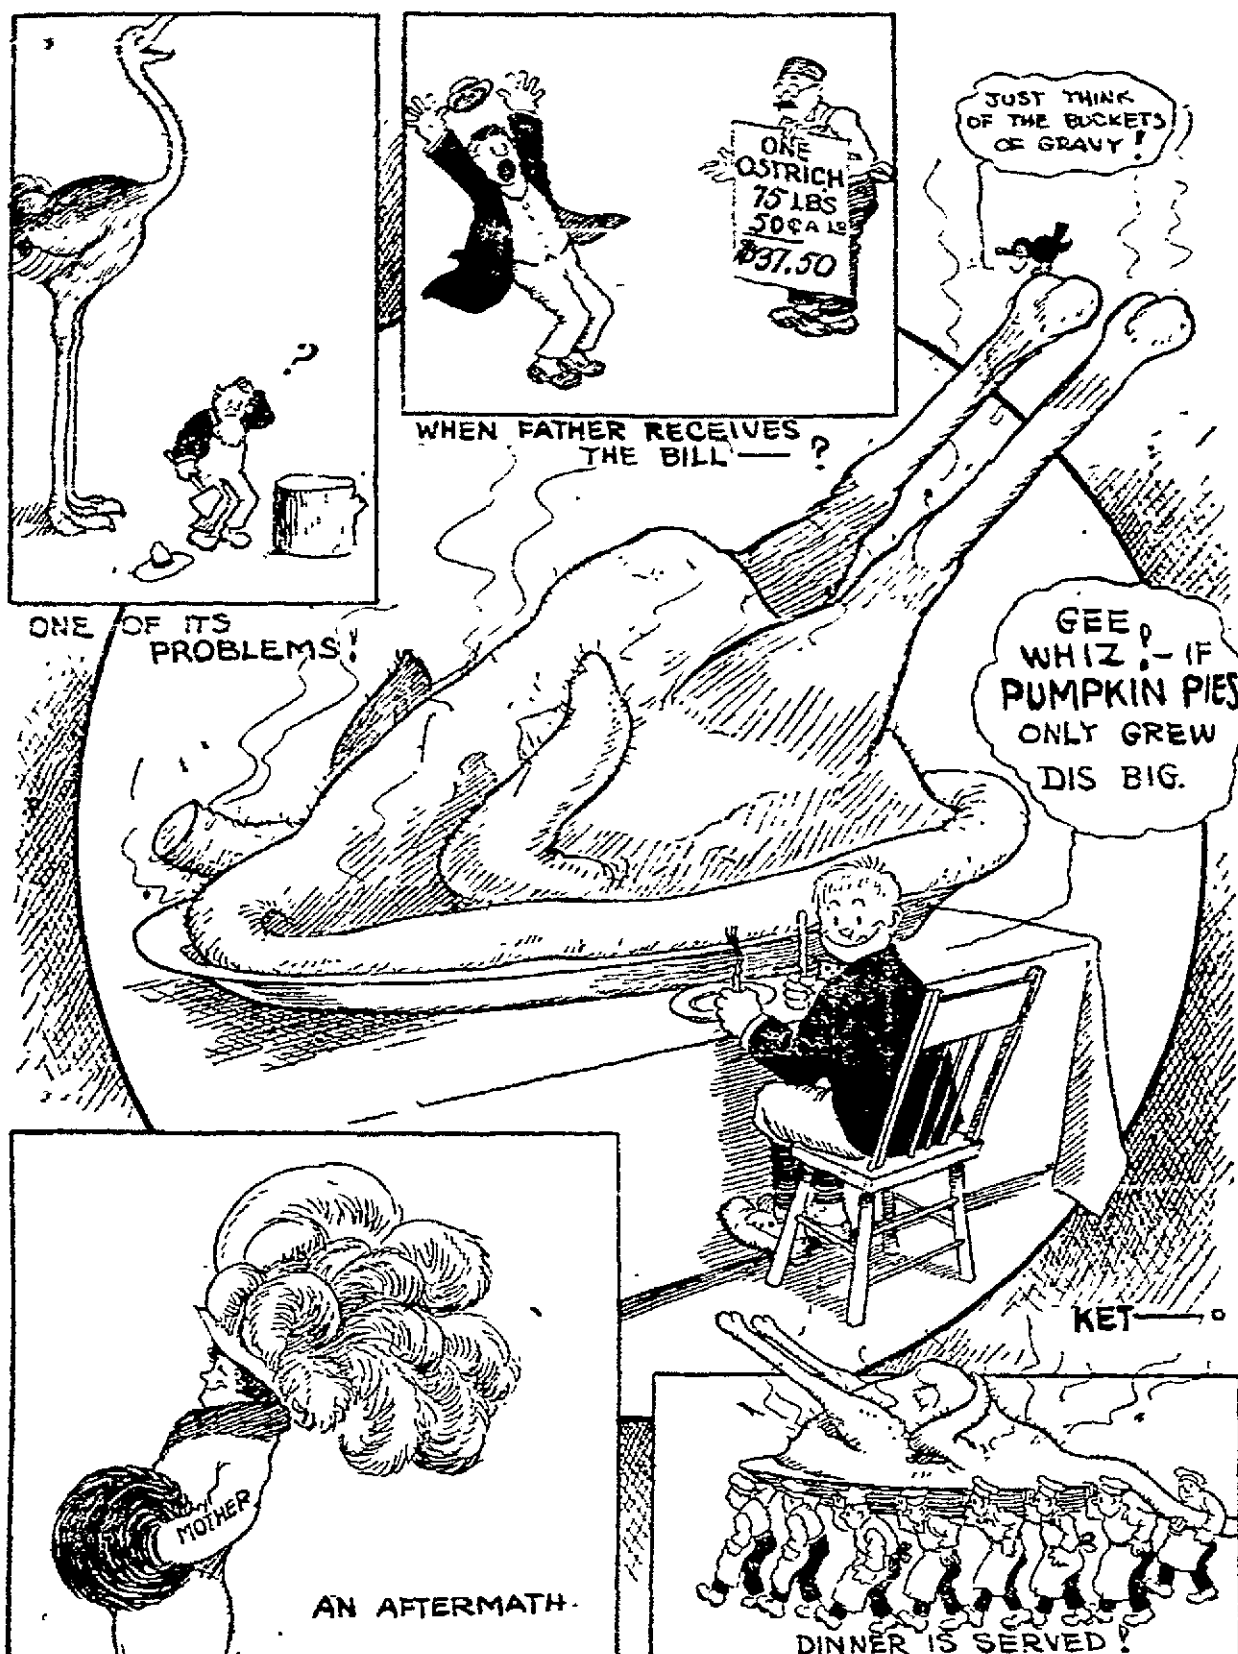

There is always a surplus of barley and alfalfa in certain sections of this State, and many times prices on these products are not as satisfactory as can be wished for. Then why not devote these products to hog raising? Experts declare that hogs can be produced at home at five cents a pound and right now fat hogs, finished on barley, are selling in this city and across the bay at ten cents a pound, live weight, the highest price in the union and the demand is growing all the time.

Nor is it by any means impossible to grow enough corn to use as a finishing product in combination with barley, for there are many localities where corn can be successfully grown if the right methods are pursued. Then too there is Egyptian corn that has been found available which can be raised in many localities and has been. Hogs fattened on the latter product have been marketed in the bay cities and always command an advance in price.

With the advantages at hand it looks like folly almost criminal in character to permit this great sum of money to leave California every year, when proper concert of effort would keep every cent at home.

It is announced that since the opening of the war crime in London has decreased thirty per cent. Yet who would advocate war as a preventative for crime.

Business Conditions Improving.

Coincident with the opening of the federal reserve banks of the country and the possibility of an increase in the elasticity of the circulating medium, the conclusion of the cotton poll through which the growers of the southern states are guaranteed against loss due to war conditions, comes information from financial and business centers eastward of indications for an early revival of trade.

Bank clearings, one of the barometers of business, are rising. Before the war began the monthly bank clearings of the nation were $14,361,000,000. But in August, when it became certain there would be no stopping hostilities there was a slump to $9,814,090,000, or about 31.7 per cent. A good part of this was due to the stoppage of stock exchange operations, to a stoppage in coffee and cotton trading and other things. But on the other hand, as bank clearings represented settlements, the volume for August was much increased by the huge advance in commodity price level following the opening of the war, which in two weeks carried that level up about thirteen per cent. More than half this unparalleled rise in commodity prices has since been lost to the great relief of the consumers. It has also worked to keep bank clearings down covering the same amount of business formerly done. But it may be said that in a recovery from a low point made by the war at its outbreak, such shrinkage through the value of articles was overcome through an expansion of the volume of business. This increase at first was small. For September the clearings were $9,897,000,000, a gain over those of August of only $83,000,000. But the figures for October were more cheerful. The clearings in that month were $11,594,000,000, or an increase of seven per cent over September. There is little doubt that the increase for this month will be far in excess.

There are many reasons for indulging in this prediction. Crop movements are facilitating business. Exports of wheat up to November 5 from the United States and Canada were 129,841,000 bushels as compared with 105,547,000 bushels for the corresponding period of 1913. This year the average price for wheat has been about twenty-five per cent greater than in 1913. Of course the war has had its effect on shipments of many articles of commerce, notably copper, which dropped from about 35,000 tons a month to 19,500 tons. But there is an increase noted thus far in this month which is bound to have a salutary effect, while other products are showing more activity.

The stability of business is also indicated in the list of failures, which were smaller last month than at any time since May.

Taking conditions generally there seems to be good reason for predicting a general revival in activity very soon, which will be gratifying information. Legislation, the war, the elections have all contributed their share to producing a degree of uncertainty, and now that congressional programs are nearly completed, the elections are over and certain entanglements due to the war are being unraveled, the country is entitled to a return of a too long delayed prosperity.

Twenty-four hundred voters have been indicted in Pike county, Kentucky, for election frauds in the selection of a circuit judge. It is stated that there may be more caught in the judicial dragnet than were indicted in Adams county, Ohio, three years ago, when more than 3000 were presented for trial by grand jury and hundreds disfranchised. Kentucky has shown signs of reform in many instances, but it appears that love of money, the root of all evil, has not yet been eradicated.

John Treadwell, once known as a millionaire on the Pacific Coast, is bankrupt in New York City with liabilities exceeding $2,000,000 and practically no assets. His principal creditor is the defunct California Safe Deposit & Trust company. The unlucky depositors of that institution will derive little consolation from this bit of news. Had Treadwell been able to liquidate his debt, there might have been a few cents more added to the small refund of approximately thirteen cents repaid in seven years.

George Fred Williams, late minister to Greece, declares if he had possessed $25,000 he would have been King of Albania, the people having begged him to take the crown. Wonder why George Fred did not borrow that small sum from some of his loyal subjects?

Twenty Years Ago Today

The following petition will be placed before the city council this evening: "We, the undersigned citizens, having duly considered the proposition of W. E. Dargie to pay one-half the cost of macadamizing and sidewalking the first section of the boulevard on the east side of Lake Merritt, from Twelfth street to the existing wall, and the auditor have represented that there is money enough in the Treasury to pay the city's share of the cost, and the city engineer having declared it to be a desirable and feasible improvement, we would respectfully recommend the acceptance of the proposition and the taking of such steps as are necessary to immediately proceed with the work." The foregoing is signed by many of Oakland's most prominent citizens among them: William R. Davis, E. H. Pardee, George C. Perkins, John R. Gluscock, F. W. Henshaw, F. B. Ogden, George D. Metcalf, J. Peter Linbak, a native of Denmark, was admitted to American citizenship. Arthur Crane, Frank Ball, Miss Edith Judson and Miss Cannon are kept busy nowadays copying records at the County Clerk's office. They are among the hardest workers in the office. Accountants are still busy with the election returns. Results, as far as obtained, are as follows: Governor, J. H. Budd, Dem., 6786; M. M. Estee, R., 3150; H. French, Pro., 519; J. V. Did you ever see a Sikh in uniform? Not? Whatever of fierceness your childhood fancy painted upon the face of a soldier, the Sikh has it. Other soldiers may be as brave, or may fight more tenaciously, or die more willingly, but for simple fierceness of personal appearance all medals go to the Sikh.

GREAT ALTERATION SALE

Begins Saturday!

THE lease on our SMALL corner building at Eleventh and Washington streets expires in a few weeks. The owner of the property has demanded the premises. This necessitates the condensing of our many departments in our Main Building, and a great upheaval of merchandise results. During this great Alteration and Moving period we offer our patrons a selling event of such tremendous importance that every woman in Greater Oakland with a view to economy must take advantage of this sale, which begins Saturday morning. Full details in Friday's TRIBUNE and ENQUIRER.

Washington at Eleventh Street

HIS CHILDREN HUNGRY, BUT HE LOVES 'EM

"Yes, you love your children," Prosecuting Attorney Henry's voice rang through the courtroom, "but that won't keep them alive, will it? They can't eat it can they? Here you are, a strong, able-bodied man, earning a good living when you are not drunk or out on a strike. And in a whole year you have given the nine of them just $35, including Christmas presents."

It was just another of the non-support cases, such as pile into Miss McCall's office every day of the week, and it is admitted by all concerned that they are the most difficult and foolish cases on the calendar to decide. And it was after all the testimony had been taken after the wife had told of the struggle for bread, of the necessity of taking two of the children from school because they did not have decent clothes, and after the woman from the Associated Charities explained the pitiful contributions of the state, that the man, sitting hunched and silent in his chair, suddenly broke the silence with violent protestations of his paternal love.

POINTS TO WIFE

"I love my children, I always wanted to do right, I done my duty by them as well as I could. And he pounded the table sharply with his fist. "But that woman there, she interfered with me all the time."

It was the old, old story—the end of twenty years of married life. And the faded woman glared and the dirty, unshaven man glared back, as they faced each other across the green-covered table.

The testimony went on endlessly from the woman, with sudden and quickly muffled interruptions from the man, but at last it was decided. He must stay in jail in his power to help with these beloved children.

"How much are you earning?" "Twenty-four dollars a week."

"Well, how much do you feel that you can afford?"

He hesitated.

"Well, maybe I could give them half."

Hennessy smiled. "That's generosity, all right, my man, he said. Guess you can't get any more out of him on such a princely amount."

And so the case was closed.

WAR MAPS SHOW

ARMY MOVEMENTS

After Years of Study Complete Contour of Europe Is Made.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—To the wonderfully complete maps of the European war zones, prepared by the war offices of the belligerents, American army officers have the detailed study that they are able to make of the troop movements in Belgium and France, and to some extent upon the Austrian-Russian and German-Russian frontiers. When dispatches which the names of villages around which fighting is in progress, it is possible to turn to these maps and see at a glance the character of the country, its roads and byways, with details of their construction, and even to note the nature of the soil on slopes where the men will have to "dig in" to withstand the storm of rifle, machine-gun and field-piece fire.

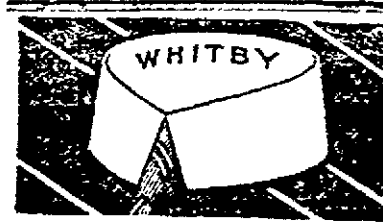

There are not so many maps of this country. The European maps are the product of years of toil in preparation for war, and those used by General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief; General French, the English leader, and the German chief of staff are far more complete than any other foreign governments have been able to obtain showing the regions now torn by war.

With such maps at his disposal a commander can be far in the rear of his long battle line and yet know from moment to moment the exact nature of obstacles in any portion of the front he is facing. He could direct the places of entrenchment to within a few yards of any small detail or battery of guns and could order forward his heavy artillery along a certain road with entire confidence that the road would carry the huge weight. There is no trail or byway, ditch or stone fence that is not shown.

For nearly 15 years the United States army has not been struggling in a modest way to supplement its maps of this country, so they would offer to a very modest degree at least, the aid to military operations which European commanders have at hand. The work is known as the Progressive Military Map of the United States, and officers are assigned to carry it forward in the course of the country each year. A dual purpose is served by the assignment, since the officers are given practical training in map-making, which would be invaluable to them in case of war.

The progress of 15 years on the huge task is described by army officers as "insignificant," outside of its educational value. To obtain adequate maps for military operations covering every possible theater of war in this country would mean the expenditure of enormous sums of money, and the military map of the United States has never been made. The work is being carried forward, however, as fully as is possible under the circumstances, and whenever officers are available they go out to gather data to be added to the progressive maps. It is possible more attention will be given to the work at a later date, and the data thus far assembled will be invaluable as indicating where to concentrate efforts and what changes are to be expected in any section from year to year.

MILLIONAIRE NEW YORK

HERMIT DYING IN SOUTH

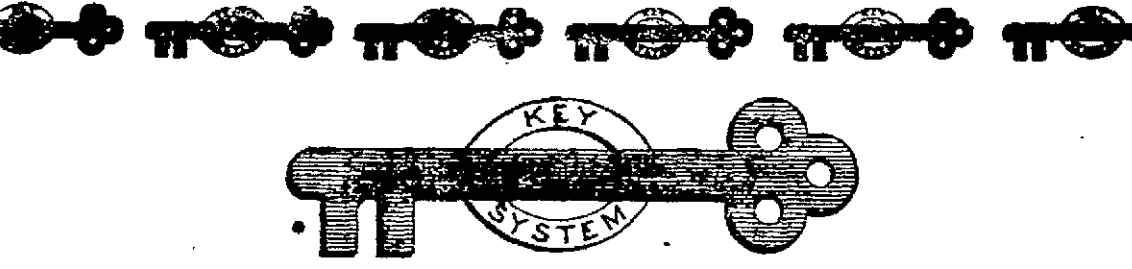

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—John G. Wendell, the New York millionaire, who is dying in Los Angeles, came more prominently along Broadway than any other single individual, and is said only to the Astor estate as a landowner in this city. His wealth is estimated at $5,000,000 at least. Wendell is nearly 50 years of age and unmarried.

The Russell Sage of Broadway and the "Hermit of Fifth Avenue" were names often applied to Wendell in former years. His home while in the city is the mysterious-looking brownstone house at Fifth Avenue and Twenty-ninth street, opposite the Trust Company Club.

The vacant lots beside it were never sold because the millionaire said his dog had to have space to romp about. The property, including the house, which is the Wendell homestead, is valued at $512,500.

Real estate operators who have cast longing eyes at the island chunks of Wendell land scattered about the city in past years have invariably been met with the reply when they made inquiries as to price: "We do not sell property."

Long ago he made it plain that he did not care for money. He has seemed the one man in the world who thought he had enough. There was a sentiment about land that had long been in the family, and the "Rockefeller of real estate" refused to part with a single foot of it.

YOU MADE US DO IT

We've been in business here at Oakland just one year, and are DOUBLING OUR SELLING SPACE. That means we have more than doubled our business. Others may have reason to cry "Hard Times." Business is good with us, because our Square Deal methods are daily convincing more of the men of Oakland and vicinity, that there is real merit to the Foreman & Clark basis of doing of business.

WE ARE DOUBLING OUR FLOOR SPACE

Because the public is with us and back of us, because we have gained your confidence and patronage, because you have learned to know us and believe in us and our Absolute Money-Back Guarantee. No sale is complete until you are satisfied. No garment leaves our store until it is right and fits right. That's what we promise. That's what we guarantee. That's the very reason we are growing so fast and successfully, selling

FAIR

TO ORGANIZED LABOR

We want to know you, each and every one. We want to meet you and greet you, especially because we know how thoroughly a Union workman will recognize the merit of the high grade workmanship in our garments. These come from the best of manufacturers, and with the expert men we have in our alteration department we can and do readily guarantee you perfect fitting. Come, get acquainted with our fair and square methods.

A square deal Always, and the same Square Deal to every customer. We never cut a price. We never have a "Reduction" Sale. We Always save you money. Every garment we sell is absolutely all wool, comes from a representative manufacturer, is designed, built and finished right, and we guarantee that you will be pleased at the time of purchase and a long time after. Otherwise, come Get Your Money Back. We'll pay it out to you as cheerfully, as we first accepted it.

Extravagant Street Level Clothiers Can't Compete

Our rent is low. We save you over $150,000 (One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars) per year on the second floor rent of our four busy California stores. Think of it, we sell more than one hundred and twenty-five thousand suits a year. Last year we averaged only 56c profit per suit. This year our business has grown so, that we are figuring on making still less per suit, probably around 48 or 49c. It costs us only a very small percentage to do business. Our fixtures are plain and inexpensive. You don't have to pay for marble columns and glittering chandeliers here, that are useless expense elsewhere, and do you no good.

FEW CHANCES SLATED IN STATE OFFICES

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 19.—It was practically assured last night that D. D. Sullivan, foreman of the bindery in the state printing plant, and a labor leader who was active in the recent state campaign, is to be named deputy state printer when the new state printer, Robert H. Taylor, goes into office.

It was announced yesterday by Friend W. Richardson, state treasurer, that all the force in the treasurers office at the present time probably will be retained. Hubert Johnston of Los Angeles who has been chief deputy under State Treasurer E. D. Roberts, probably will keep his place.

FINED FOR SHOOTING SWAN.
COLIMA, Nov. 14.—Harold Turner, Fred Wheeler, George Lott and D. E. Roger were brought before Judge Moore in the justice's court for killing a swan. Turner admitted his guilt and was fined $25. The other three were charged Sunday and, according to their story, found the swan dead and brought it into town as a curiosity.

PACIFIC HOP GROWERS MEET FOR ORGANIZATION

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 19.—Whether to form a single association for three Pacific coast states or a single one covering all three was a question which occupied much of the attention of the hop growers of Oregon, California, and Washington, gathered here yesterday to organize for mutual benefit. It was considered that a single organization would be the more efficient, it was the expressed opinion of the delegates that no change should be taken of running along the Federal anti-trust law. The question was left open to be taken up later in the evening.

Indications were that from 75 to 90 per cent of the growers of the three states included in the plan would join the association.

A main object of the proposed organization it was stated, will be to finance marketing and put an end to contract sales.

EMERSON ON WITNESS STAND.
MARTINEZ, Nov. 17.—C. Emerson, in the county jail on a charge of having high explosives in his possession, was taken to Stockton this afternoon and will appear Friday as a witness in the preliminary examination of F. T. Wilson, charged with being connected with the recent Stockton dynamite episode.

BABY DROWNS IN POOL.
AUBURN, Nov. 18.—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis of this city yesterday was drowned in a pool of water near the county hospital. The body has been found. The child was playing about the pool and accidentally fell in.

MODELS OF THIRTY U. S. WARSHIPS SENT TO FAIR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Models of thirty battleships, cruisers, destroyers and other types of American fighting machines were removed from the Navy Department building today for shipment to San Francisco, where they will form a part of the navy's exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The largest of the models—that of the dreadnought Oklahoma—which had a place in the office of Secretary Daniels, is valued at more than $300,000 and is nearly twenty feet long. The shipmodel, with other government exhibits, will be sent to the west coast on the collier Caesar, which will sail next month by way of the Panama canal.

P. P. L. E. INTERESTS WILSON.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—President Wilson has taken a personal interest in the commemorative medal to be issued by the board in charge of the government exhibit at the San Francisco Exposition an artistic success. He discussed the question today with A. C. Miller, chairman of the governing board.

HACK! HACK! HACK!
With raw tickling throat, tight chest, sore lungs, you need Pepp's Honey and Tar Compound, and quickly. The first dose helps, it leaves a soothing, healing coating as it glides down your throat, you feel better at once. S. Martin, Bassett, Neb., writes: "I had a severe cough and cold and was almost past going. I got a bottle of Pepp's Honey and Tar and am glad to say it cured my cough entirely and my cold soon disappeared." Every user is a friend. Sold everywhere.

WASHINGTON GOOD ROADS ASSN. HOLDS CONVENTION

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 18.—With several hundred delegates in attendance, the fifteenth annual convention of the Washington State Good Roads Association opened here yesterday and will be in session two days. Features of the day were the address by President Clyde L. Miller and an address by Governor Ernest Lister.

Present Morris outlined the work accomplished on state highways in the last year and urged that the program mapped out two years ago be continued and that a levy of 2½ mills for permanent highways be continued.

Governor Lister urged that the state should devote its efforts to complete road construction already undertaken, rather than take up new enterprises, recommended that all roads be established on permanent grades not to exceed 5 per cent, favored convict labor on road construction because of its moral effect on convicts, and said he hoped to see the time when every farmer would maintain a split log drag on his own highways without expense to the state.

MAY HALT SUBWAY WORK.
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Stoppage of work on the entire dual rapid transit system, throwing out of employment 18,000 men, who are drawing $2,000,000 a week tying up the city's great investment and delaying the completion of subways until court contests can be decided, is threatened by the action of the labor unions, according to the Public Service Commission Tuesday.

HOLLOW TILES USED FOR DESERT HOUSES

For the greater comfort of its section foremen and section men, the Southern Pacific is establishing at various points on the Tucson and Los Angeles divisions, where the temperature is very high, hollow tiled section houses. These are gradually being made the standard for desert country, where, formerly, at intervals of long stretches of track extending through inhospitable and regions, section headquarters were maintained either in adobe houses or in houses made in whole or in part of reconstructed box cars.

The hollow tile section house is especially adapted to hot weather, the thing giving what amounts to a double wall with hot and cold air chambers. Cool in the day time, the houses are warm and comfortable at night. They range from forty to sixty feet in length and are built to accommodate four to ten families.

Pains are taken by the Southern Pacific in painting and keeping suitable trees around section headquarters. The company has planted nurseries at convenient locations, from which young trees and shrubs are sent to the section foremen, that their grounds may be made homelike and be provided with adequate shade.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Candy," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

WEAK KIDNEYS MEAN A WEAK BODY

When you're fifty your body begins to crack a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "Not so young as I used to be" is a frequent and unwelcome thought. Certain bodily functions upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. The weak spot is generally the bladder. Unpleasant symptoms show themselves. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise. This is particularly true with elderly people. If you only know how this trouble can be obviated.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the inconvenience and pain due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy, and needs no introduction. It is now put up in colorless, tasteless capsules. These are easier and more pleasant to take than the oil in bottles. Each capsule contains about one dose of five drops. Take them just like you would any pill, with a small swallow of water. They soak into the system and throw off the poisons which are making you old before your time. They will quickly relieve those stiffened joints, that backache, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gill-stones, gravel, "brick-dust," etc. They are an effective remedy for all diseases of the bladder, kidneys, liver, stomach and allied organs.

Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. GOLD MEDAL are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil Capsules. Accept no substitutes. Guaranteed and sold by The Owl Drug Co.

Mrs. Frank
Stroche, R. F.
D. 1, Appleton,

months ago, when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck. Could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live.
"Three bottles of Peruna made me feel a new life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength.
While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never

the White Star liner Balclutha, for Liverpool, collided late yesterday afternoon in New York harbor, passing out through the Ambrose channel.
The Comal was compelled to turn about and return to her dock, where it was found that she had been damaged to such an extent that her sailing has been cancelled.

WANTED 'PEP,' SO
CUT LIVE WIREMartinez Man Risks Life in An Attempt to Become More Lively.

Martinez, Nov. 19.—Some one in Martinez mentioned in a casual way to John Lindemann, a 53-year-old resident of this place, that the 11,000-volt high tension line of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company was full of pep. This reminded Lindemann that he needed some peppers for a plaster for his chest, so he quietly hit out with an ax and chopped off the wire where it entered the Pacheco Flour Mills building. By some strange trick of fate he was killed when he touched the wire, and he was about to pick up the wire and of the copper strand when he was pulled away by several workmen.
Lindemann insisted vigorously that he wanted to get a handful of "pep," and his insistence resulted last night in his commitment to Agnew Hospital.

Redwood City, Nov. 19.—Redwood City has launched a campaign for the straightening of Redwood creek, which would bring deep water into the heart of the business district. Backed by business men and citizens, the supporters of the scheme will wait on Senator-elect Thelan and Congressman Hayes to secure a government appropriation to carry out this project. If Redwood creek is straightened as proposed, according to the engineers, the channel will flush itself out and the creek will become navigable.

San Mateo, Nov. 19.—Perry Sexton, a wealthy contractor of Pigeon point, has been arrested on a complaint sworn to by George A. Mader, a local dealer in liquor, who charged Sexton with selling with a deadly weapon. The case will be heard before Justice of the Peace Joseph A. McCormick in San Mateo next Monday. Sexton has lost heavily of late through incendiary fires.

Pacheco, Nov. 19.—The old Pacheco four mill, one of the first big mills to be built in California, was destroyed by fire yesterday, presumably by careless campaign. The landmark burned to the ground.
The four mill was built in 1857 by W. P.
Hendricks, and at that time formed the principal basis for Pacheco's existence.
After running constantly for fifty-three years it was made into a storehouse by Theodore and M. S. Russell.

San Rafael, Nov. 19.—The war which District Attorney Boyd is waging on sellers of cigarettes to boys broke out afresh here yesterday with the arrest of Warner and W. E. Reinhold, local merchants, on warrants charging them with violating the State law regulating the sale of tobacco to minors. Both men are accused of selling cigarettes to A. Jou-nan, a sixteen-year-old student at Hitchcock Military Academy.

Santa Rosa, Nov. 19.—As a result of an examination of Dr. Averyl Harcourt, a woman physician, charged with insanity, Elizabeth Tate and Dr. J. W. Clark alienists, with Judge Zook of San Rafael, last night allowed Dr. Harcourt to go on her own recognizance until the first Monday in January. Judge Zook had to order all who could not find seats in court to "get out," so great was the interest in the case.

AUTHOR OF DRASTIC
LAW, CAN'T COMPLY

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 19.—The author of Oregon's corrupt practices act, W.
S. U'Ren, recently a candidate for governor, has found himself unable to comply with one of its important provisions. In a letter to Secretary of State Olcott U'Ren writes that he has misplaced a memorandum book containing his statements of expenditures during the campaign and the receipts.
The law provides that all receipts must accompany statements of expenditures sent to the secretary of state.

"I have no means of replacing the information that was in the account book," writes U'Ren, who estimated his total expenditures at $540.94. Olcott replied that it would be necessary for U'Ren to supply the receipts, either in originals or duplicates.

WIRELESS WAS HARMLESS.
TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 19.—Investigation by an inspector from the De-that a wireless outfit on the Florida coast near Bayport, traced by the navy's radio experts at Key West, was a small amateur apparatus. The inspector sent to learn if unneutral messages were being sent to ships at sea is said to have reported that the outfit was harmless.

MASKED BANDIT SHOOTS
AND KILLS CONDUCTOR

DAKOTA CITY, Ia., Nov. 19.—A masked bandit who entered the caboose of Northwestern stock train No. 132 between Bradgate and Rutland yesterday morning shot and fatally wounded Conductor Reynolds of Eagle Grove while he was being driven from the train. Reynolds died shortly afterward from the wound and the bandit was received when both fell from the train.
On entering the coach the bandit ordered the passengers to hold up their hands and began to shoot. Conductor

Reynolds made a dive for the bandit and in the fight both fell from the train.
Possessing a reputation for the bandit, who escaped unhurt, a man, who protests his innocence, but refuses to give his name, was arrested late yesterday three miles north of Gilmore City.

was ratified by the senate here some

Relief for Catarrh
Sufferers Now FREE

You Can Now Treat This Trouble in Your Own Home and Get Relief at Once.

How the Remedy for Catarrh
Was Discovered.

THIS terrible disease
has raged unchecked
for years simply because symptoms have been treated while the cause of the trouble has been left to circulate in the blood, and bring the disease back as fast as local treatments could relieve it.

C. E. Gauss, who experimented for years on a treatment for Catarrh, found that after perfecting a balm that relieved the nose and throat troubles quickly, he could not prevent the trouble beginning all over again.

On test cases, he could completely remove all signs of Catarrh from nose and throat, but in a few weeks they were back.

Careful experiments and investigations have shown that as the troubles were expelled from the nose and throat, the real cause of the disease was overlooked and in a short time the Catarrh would return stronger than ever. Mr. Gauss has gone way ahead of the ordinary methods of treatment and has provided a remedy that

Removes the Cause

and Immediately Gives Relief to the Nose and Throat

Reese Jones, of Scranton, Penn., says that after trying many other treatments, he used this new method and "My nose is now entirely clear and free and I am not bothered by the disease any more. The New Combined Treatment is worth its weight in gold."
Temporary relief from Catarrh may be obtained in other ways, but the New Combined Treatment must inevitably be accepted for permanent results.

Sarah J. Cope, Mount Pellet, Tenn., says, "I suffered the pain and distress of Catarrh for thirteen years and needless to state, nearly every method. But by your new method I was completely cured and you cannot imagine the joy that has come over me."

Trial Treatment FREE

This new method is so important to the welfare of humanity, so vital to every person suffering from any form of Catarrh, that the opportunity to actually try it and prove its results, will be gladly extended without one cent of cost.
A large trial treatment, with complete, minute directions, will be sent free to any Catarrh

Bridesmaid Is Mere Career

Undaunted by the Old Adage, She Gaily Spurns Suitors

Pretty Miss Pauline Painter has no aspirations. Three times a bridesmaid, never a bride, she has no terror for her. Possibly Miss Painter knows best, why.

Which is to say that Miss Painter might be a bride, any day. Like Marian Newhall, who has been bridesmaid so many times she can't count them. For Mrs. Athol McBean (Margaret Newhall), Mrs. Arthur Chesborough (Elizabeth Newhall), Mrs. Talbot Walker (Mary Keener), Mrs. Templeton Crocker (Helene Irwin), Mrs. Parker (Julia Laughorne), and there may have been others.

And in spite of this record, which matches that of Melville Bowman's as best man (he is the best man in society, it is experience counts for anything)—everyone knows that Marian Newhall turned down more suitors than any girl in her set, and is still turning them down with no chance in the world of ultimately remaining a spinster. Also Marian Zelle, who is a favorite bridesmaid of the Greenway set, and likewise a belle. No one supposes for a minute that Miss Zelle won't have bridesmaids of her own some day.

Miss Painter's record began at her sister's wedding, when Miss Janet Painter became Mrs. Philip Miles. This season there was no Ramsey-Underwood wedding for one. And last night Miss Painter was again a bridesmaid, one of the lovely group at the Capwell-Seydel wedding.

Reception is brilliant.

Beyond all expectations the card party held yesterday afternoon at the Grand Hotel residence for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief Society proved successful. Over three hundred playing at the tables. Masses of huckleberry and yellow chrysanthemums were used as a note of decoration in reception and sun-rooms, as well as the spacious upper and lower halls which were crowded with anxious guests. During the afternoon the young girls assisting passed among the tables selling candy. Many of the women were beautifully gowned. Mrs. Granville Abbott, the hostess, in pink and blue, was especially well. Mrs. Matilda Brown, president of the Ladies' Relief Society, in a black velvet dress with a life hat. The reception party included:

Mrs. Granville Abbott, Mrs. Louis Chirac, Mrs. Matilda Brown, Mrs. J. T. Eccles, Mrs. W. S. Henshaw, Mrs. Edward L. Mathis, Mrs. Anne Gray, Mrs. E. S. Kegan, Mrs. Arthur West, Miss Alice Grimes, Mrs. Frank Wood, Miss Hattie Baker, Mrs. Louise de, Mrs. Wickham, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Everett Brown, Mrs. Abbott's daughter, Miss Ruth Abbott, and her niece, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Adeline Howard, Mrs. Margaret Howard, Miss Helen Rodolph, Miss Anne Elizabeth Crowder, and Miss Katherine Maxwell.

MORRISON-WAGNET WEDDING. At a very pretty home wedding last evening, Miss Elizabeth Morrison became the bride of Russell Gordon Wagnet at the home of Mrs. Gordon Wagnet.

TO GIVE LUNCHEON. Mrs. Hewitt Davenport has sent out invitations for a luncheon to be given at the Hotel Oakland on Friday, when she will entertain 25 guests, including a number of her San Francisco friends as well as others from this side of the bay. Her sisters, Miss Frances and Miss Elizabeth Cooper of San Francisco, will receive with her.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE. Mrs. Monteil Taylor was hostess at a bridge party at her home in Webster street last evening, entertaining a table with 24 guests. The game number will accept Mrs. Taylor's hospitality on Saturday afternoon. Receiving with her yesterday were Mrs. McCutcheon Gregory and Miss Clarissa Lohse.

IN ARKANSAS. Mrs. A. H. Glavcock is a guest at the Arlington Hotel (Miss Arkansas) Hot Springs. She plans to remain at the "American" until mid-December, when she will return to her apartment at the Hotel Oakland. Mrs. Glavcock has passed the last four months in the East.

Her absence Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marx (Rose Gardner), whose wedding was an event of the summer, have been living at the Gardner home in Berkeley. Mrs. Marx will entertain at an informal tea for her mother on her.

RETURN FROM EAST. Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Hewitt returned Monday from a trip to New York and are at their home in Broadway, San Francisco, after an absence of six weeks. Mrs. Hewitt is remembered as Miss Kate Clement of Oakland.

HENSHAW-KEENEY WEDDING. The wedding of Miss Florence Henshaw and Charles Keeney will not be postponed owing to the death of Dr. Keeney, but it will be a very quiet affair at Rose Crest on December 2. Only members of the families will be present. After the honeymoon in the south, the young couple will make their home at the W. G. Henshaw residence at Vernon Heights.

DANCE LAST EVENING. Members of the younger set gathered last evening at the second dance of a series given by a group of young bachelors at Townsend's Century High Motel. The hosts are students of the university, and their guests usually number about 150 of the younger belles and beaux.

IN WASHINGTON. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson Cushing and Miss Carmen Chiracelli, who have been at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York for several months, are at present in Washington, and may decide to pass the holiday season there. They will go to Palm Beach for the January season, which will be unusually gay this year, with Egypt and the Riviera practically off the social map.

Krebs, one of the season's belles. A delightful surprise was revealed when cards were presented to the bride and groom, who were to be married on the following day.

GHIRARDELLI DANCE. Mr. and Mrs. Lila Cook of Berkeley, who were among the guests at a dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York last evening, are at present in Washington, and may decide to pass the holiday season there. They will go to Palm Beach for the January season, which will be unusually gay this year, with Egypt and the Riviera practically off the social map.

Learn to Walk Correctly

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

Most persons a difference between the development of the two sides is quite visible. If we examine the finest statues in this respect we shall find that the artist proposes to do is to equalize the strength and skill of the two arms and legs. When you see either man or woman striding along with one shoulder erect and the other slumped, you may know at once that they do not exercise their body in any way. The first rule in all exercises is to straighten up and walk correctly.

Frequently a want of symmetry is due to the bad habit of sleeping always on one side. Such a habit should never be indulged. It is ruinous to grace, and has, moreover, an injurious effect on the general health by displacing the internal organs and subjecting them to unequal pressure. One should sleep quite as often on one side as the other, and occasionally on the back, without a pillow. Nothing regulates circulation so quickly as lying flat upon the back without a pillow for an hour. Persons who are accustomed to sleep together should change sides from time to time. This is especially important with children and young girls.

A want of symmetry in the shoulders is common among those who write, paint or manicure steadily. They should wear a shoulder brace, the pressure of which causes them to sit erect or suffer. They should also practice calisthenics whenever the opportunity presents itself.

C. E. I am afraid that the cause of the hump of your feet growing out and the aching you complain of is the result of your being on your feet so much. It is hard to be on one's feet all day long without a rest. You should take plenty of exercise, and use every chance you can get of resting your feet. Stay in bed on Sundays as long as you can and go to bed as early as possible. Wear a good, comfortable pair of shoes with medium broad heels. They would also advise you to get a pair of arch braces. These would support the arches of your feet and rest them. At night when you come home bathe your feet in cool salt water, dry them, and then massage with olive oil. Change your hose and put on another pair of shoes. A change of shoes will often rest the feet wonderfully.

CHUBBY. If you leave your hands alone they will soon grow Don't curl them on an iron for curling keeps them short. Rub vaseline into the roots each night. This will help them to grow. For the spots on your face, I am afraid I cannot help you. If they are sores, as you say they are, the best thing would be to consult a good physician regarding them. They may be caused from the blood and a good blood tonic may help you. Don't pinch them or irritate them in any way. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you bleach for tan and formula for removing superfluous hair.

HAZEL. I am sorry but I cannot possibly give you advice regarding becoming an actress.

Answers to Queries.

T. J. The hands are the best implements for washing the face, and they are preferable to even the most delicate wash cloths. They at once if each little muscle is reached, and they can tell you when all the soap is rinsed off the face. They never rub hard enough to hurt the cuticle in any way, whereas cloths and brushes have the power to rub the cuticle to the breaking point, causing roughness and blotches. Anything that pulls or twists the facial muscles will loosen them, causing flabbiness, and flabbiness is the first indication of age. Rubber put the face with cleansing cream, then rub the cream off with a soft piece of linen and bathe the face with plenty of cold water two or three times a day, using the hands for that purpose. The patting makes the face muscles firm and the cold water strengthens the skin. You must remember that you have but one face and you can make or break it by your treatment of it.

MISS W. G. H. Those who suffer from roughness and redness of the hands should wash them with the following preparation: One part of castile soap and three parts of melted lard in as much fine oatmeal as will form a thick

PARENTS FAIL TO PREVENT WEDDING

Heiress Gives a False Address So She Can Marry Student

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Though her parents sought by telephone and through personal messenger to stop the ceremony, Miss Ruth Robinson, daughter of wealthy Mr. and Mrs. Horace Robinson of Cortland, today is the bride of F. J. Boyd of Evansville, Ind., a student in the freshman class of Cornell University. They obtained a marriage license because the bride gave a false address to obtain it. Miss Robinson, who was engaged to be married to a student in Syracuse University when the latter was graduated, came to Ithaca with her brother to visit friends. She obtained permission to remain over another day and by prearrangement met Boyd downtown. They tried to obtain a license here, but were refused on the ground that the girl was not a resident of this city. They then motored a few miles out in the country and obtained the license by misrepresenting the girl's residence to the clerk.

Hurrying back to Ithaca, they were privately married by the Rev. J. C. B. Meyer, a Methodist clergyman. Meanwhile the girl's parents were seeking to head off the pair, and her brother tried to get out a warrant. The Ithaca police, however, were powerless to interfere as the young woman is 19 years of age. After the ceremony the bride went back to a friend's home, where her brother joined her and became violently ill from his anger and excitement.

Obtains Divorce from Novelist and Athlete. NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Edith Hyde Robbins won her action for divorce in the supreme court, Brooklyn, when Justice Benedict signed the decree freeing her from Clarence A. Robbins, known as "Tod" Robbins, novelist and athlete. Trial of the action was in secret before Robert H. Hammond, referee, who found Mr. Robbins guilty of improper conduct on three separate occasions. The marriage took place on July 15, 1909, following a sensational elopement. There are two children.

The defendant is to pay his wife $150 a month alimony, and she has charge of the children, Norman Hyde, 2 years old, and John, 3 years old. The decree stipulates that Robbins shall have his children during the summer, when he will be obliged to pay his wife $105.34 a month. Mrs. Robbins will have the children from October 1 until June 1 of each year. In the event of her marriage all alimony will cease, but Robbins will have to furnish $150 a month for the maintenance and education of his children.

Another "Unloaded" Gun Is Discharged; Victim May Die. STOCKTON, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Florence Robinson, a waitress, was accidentally shot by her brother-in-law, Frank P. Sexton, when he pulled the trigger of a newly purchased automatic pistol, which he supposed he had emptied of shells. The wound, in the chest, may prove fatal, according to attending physicians.

WOMEN ACCUSED OF STEALING OWN CLOTHES. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Accused of entering the home of her former husband, renting a room from his housekeeper under a fictitious name, and then stealing her own clothes, Mrs. Sexton, a waitress, was brought to this city yesterday for trial. What she at first considered as something of a lark was getting a bit too serious for comfort, she said, as the tears welled into her eyes. She was arrested on a warrant obtained by her former husband, J. A. Ruff, 1330 McAllister street, charging her with burglary.

"I never took a thing that didn't belong to me," said Mrs. Ruff at the city prison. "I went to my husband's house and saw his housekeeper, Mrs. Woods. We talked about Mr. Ruff's quilt blanket and I learned a great deal about myself that I didn't know before. I told the housekeeper, when I rented the room, that my name was Bessie Partridge and that I was looking for work. She is a good soul, but she didn't think much of me. Emergency Hospital to Resume Practice.

Dr. E. E. Dowdle who, for the last year, has been resident physician at the Oakland Emergency Hospital, will resign his position on the first of December to enter upon private practice of his profession. He has decided to locate in Hayward, where he has fitted up offices in Castro street.

Dr. Dowdle was chosen by Chief Surgeon C. D. Hamlin last February to take charge of the hospital and has filled the position in a most satisfactory manner. He has performed many operations and by his kind and courteous treatment of all the patients has formed numerous friends.

He was born in Alameda and is a graduate of the Alameda High School, after which he studied in the Hahnemann College of the Pacific before going East to further pursue his studies. After leaving California he went to the Hahnemann College of Philadelphia, and later obtained his degrees from the clinics of the University of Philadelphia. Dr. Dowdle has had wide experience in the hospital work, having been interne at the children's hospital in Philadelphia, after receiving his degrees, and later interne of the Anne May Memorial Hospital in Springfield, New Jersey, where he remained about a year.

He resided in the National Homeopathic hospital in Washington, D. C., where for a long time he held the position of resident physician. He was then put in charge of the McKinley hospital in Trenton, New Jersey.

It was in this latter place that Dr. Dowdle's health gave out and he was forced to come home to recuperate after a serious operation. He remained in the San Francisco Polytechnic Clinic for a short time, when Dr. O. D. Hamlin chose him to take charge of the Oakland Emergency hospital as resident physician.

Dr. Dowdle is well known in the medical world, where he has earned a reputation by his surgical skill. He is well known in the east, where he added to his medical skill by helping his college kick their way to victory on the gridiron and aided materially in capturing many baseball pennants. His successor has not yet been announced.

ERECT STATUE TO TRI-STATE SOLON

General Shields Represented
Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri in Senate.

CARROLLTON, Mo., Nov. 13.—The statue erected in the courthouse yard in this city to the memory of Gen. James Shields, the only man who ever represented three states—Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri—in the United States senate, will be unveiled here with elaborate and impressive ceremonies.

The statue was erected with an appropriation of $10,000 passed by the last Missouri legislature, through the efforts of State Senator William C. Busby. The governor appointed the following named Carrollton citizens as a committee to select the statue and superintend its erection: H. C. Brown, H. J. Wilkinson and Edward A. Dickinson.

The committee selected the model made by Frederick C. Hibbard of Chicago, and let the contract to him for $9,000. The statue is eight and one-half feet high, on a base nine and one-half feet high, making a total height of 17 feet.

ELABORATE CEREMONIES.
The unveiling ceremonies are expected to rival even those of last year at the unveiling of the monument over the grave of Gen. Shields in St. Mary's cemetery in this city. Special trains carried people from several states, including a detachment of federal troops stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kas.

A statue of Gen. Shields was unveiled Oct. 29 in the new capitol of Minnesota at St. Paul, it being a duplicate of the one to be unveiled at Carrollton. Gen. James Shields was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, May 10, 1810, and died in Ottumwa, Ia., June 1, 1876. In 1825, at the age of sixteen, he came to America and in 1828 began the study of law in Randolph County, Illinois, where he was admitted to the bar. In 1837 he was elected to the Illinois legislature from Randolph County.

KNEW ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
In "Old Vandalia," then the capital of the state, he made the acquaintance of Abraham Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas, and others who have since become prominent in the history of the country. In 1840 he was elected state auditor of Illinois and discharged the duties of that important position with such efficiency and success that he was unanimously re-elected by both parties, Whigs and Democrats.

In 1846 Gen. Shields was appointed judge of the Supreme Court of the state, in which office he served until appointed commissioner of the general land office by President Polk. When the Mexican war broke out he offered his services to the government and was assigned to the command of the Illinois troops as brigadier general. He served under Gen. Taylor on the Rio Grande, under Gen. Wood in the campaign against Chihuahua, and under Gen. Scott when he entered the city in the capture of the City of Mexico.

REPORTED HIM DEAD.
A grape-shot punctured Gen. Shields' right lung, tore through his body and passed out near the spine. In the official dispatches to the war office he was reported dead. To the surprise of everybody and to the astonishment of the medical staff of the army, in ten weeks he was again in the saddle and at the head of his command.

In the storming of Chapultepec he was again seriously wounded when his arm was struck by a musket ball. At the end of the war he returned to his home in Illinois.

In 1849 Illinois made him senator of the United States, he and Douglas being colleagues. He served six years with William C. Calhoun, Charles Sumner and Cass. After his term in the senate expired he moved to Minnesota, then a territory, which, on being admitted to the Union, chose Shields as one of its senators.

WEDDED IN CALIFORNIA.
The climate of Minnesota being too severe, on the expiration of his term as senator he made a trip to California, where he married.

While on the Pacific Coast the civil war broke out and he again offered his services to his adopted country. He was again appointed brigadier general and telegraphed for duty to the department, being assigned to the command of the army of West Virginia.

In 1866 he returned from the west and selected Missouri as his home.

On Jan. 21, 1875, he was chosen by the Missouri legislature to fill the unexpired term of L. V. Torrey in the United States senate, thus conferring upon him the honor of being the only man who ever represented three different states in the United States senate.

The matter was reported to the police immediately and a posse sent out from the northern station.

The men were not found, however. Connolly gave the police the following description of the thieves. U. S. CITIES NOT DISTURBED BY WAR World Conflict Has Little Effect on Local Affairs, Expert Says.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 19.—The European war is having no serious effect on municipal activities in the United States, according to a survey made by Clinton Roberts Woodruff, secretary of the National Municipal League, who delivered his annual address before that organization here last night.

"With inquiry among many of the representative cities of the country, Woodruff learned that municipalities were going on as usual, although the situation in some of them was not as favorable as it had been in the past, and although some cities were experiencing difficulty in raising loans through the usual channels, municipal credit did not seem to be jeopardized.

"Indeed," he said, "the opinion prevails among city officials that the European situation will in a short time make municipal securities the most desirable in America."

He reported no recession of interest in the commission or commission-manager form of city government.

What is aptly called the "vanishing system," the bicameral form of city government, he said, is to be found now in only nine of the largest 50 cities. Philadelphia, Baltimore, Kansas City, Providence, Louisville, Atlanta, Worcester, Richmond, Va., and Cambridge, Mass.

"In the light of the events of the past five years," he continued, "it would not be hazardous to predict that five years hence not one of the larger cities will be risking its business and its future to the evils of a form which affords such abundant opportunities for inefficiency and waste and mismanagement."

MUNICIPAL ECONOMY.
Hand in hand with this advance he notes the progress of municipal home rule, which in the course of the coming year is to be adopted by the city of New York, and to become a settled policy with regard to the relations of the states to the cities.

Nine Iowa cities operating under the commission form of government had, he noted, lived within their income for the first time in 1913. A Federal census also showed that in 1913, 100 cities had been found to be running at less per capita than the average head expense of the 195 metropolitan centers of all classes considered.

There was a noticeable improvement in municipal housekeeping accounts, he found. The "happy-go-lucky" way has been superseded by scientific budgets which have both sides met. Both the demand for municipal ownership and for efficient control of privately operated municipal utilities continued unabated. Wyoming and Utah, he said, were the only states in the union which had no form of control to regulate, in some way or by any means, the public utility. There was still much discussion throughout the country as to whether such control should be by state or local commission, with the developments of the past year seemingly more in favor of state action in these matters.

He concluded with a reference to social problems. The fear that interest in work along these lines would be abated on account of the great war, he believed to be unfounded. The very fact that the European situation will emphasize the need for greater social and civic effort.

He said, "An increasing emigration from Europe to America was to be expected as a result of the war, and this, in itself would require no little attention."

Exchange Postpones Bond Trading Plan

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The officials of the stock exchange announced this afternoon that because of unforeseen difficulties the plan to reopen the exchange for trading in bonds has been indefinitely postponed.

Earlier in the day it was officially stated that trading in this class of securities would be resumed on Saturday, subject to minimum prices.

It was intimated that the plan had been brought upon the exchange by prominent banking interests. Soon after the announcement of the proposed reopening on Saturday, large blocks of bonds were offered in the open market at prices several points below the recent high level, indicating that a return to normal trading might be attended by considerable liquidation.

These and other reasons when brought to the attention of governors of the Stock Exchange caused a hasty cancellation of the plans previously announced.

KNOCKS OUT HER TEETH DURING ALTERCATION

Mrs. Ethel Lewis, 467 Forty-fifth street, told to the police of the northern district last night that her husband had come home in a quarrelsome mood. Patrolmen Sommers and Brown went to the place in the patrol wagon and found that Mrs. Lewis had had two of her front teeth knocked out in an altercation with her husband. Lewis was arrested on a charge of battery and held in default of $100 bail.

The police were summoned to the home of Mrs. Laura Glass, 541 Forty-fourth street, last night and were informed that Charles Waring, her son-in-law, had come home during the evening with the influence of liquor and had created a disturbance in his home by breaking crockery on the floor and swearing at his wife. Mrs. Glass had Waring placed under arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace and he was locked up in default of $50 bail.

SKY-LINE DEEDS TO BE AMENDED

Instruments Submitted to City Referred Back to Council for Changes.

Deeds submitted to the city covering rights of way for the Skyline Boulevard and offered by the Peoples Water Company and the Villa Site and Development Company, were referred back by the city council today to have changes made in the provisions contained in the instruments. The changes will be the subject of a conference between the city attorney and the two companies.

City Attorney Ben P. Weller called the attention of the city council to the reasons for not accepting the deeds in their present form. It said:

IMPOSSIBLE PROVISIONS.
"I have not approved either of these instruments as to form or legality for the reason that they contain clauses and provisions which, in my judgment, and in that of the city, are impossible of execution and performance within the time specified.

"There is also an express condition contained in said deeds to the effect that the city must continuously rebuild and repave the way as a public street, and it fails to maintain said real property as a public street for a period of ninety days said real property shall revert to and become vested in the grantor, its successors or assigns."

BROADER INTERPRETATION.
"I would find no objection to this term if it merely means the keeping open by the city of the strips granted for public road purposes, but I am inclined to the view that the word 'maintain' here has a stronger significance and means that the city shall continuously rebuild and repave the same for all time. It may be that it is the purpose of the city to do this at its own expense.

"I also call the attention of the council to these deeds as dedication deeds, outlining in their nature, and are accompanied by releases of certain rights granted from the lien of mortgages or deeds of trust, if there be any such against the property."

Superintendent of streets Brown informed the council that a page of the property conveyed in the deed from the city and that an easement should be secured covering the portion to be taken.

WEDDING BETRAYS SECRET ROMANCE

Miss Nell Barton and Arthur Wenzel, Both of Macdonough Staff, United.

Keeping the romance a deep secret, even from their closest friends, Miss Nell Barton, daughter of the late Charles T. Barton, well known Oakland confecturer, and Arthur Wenzel, assistant manager of the Macdonough Theater, were for some months past quietly married in the city of Sacramento, California, last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles T. Barton, in East Oakland. The marriage was only discovered by friends of the couple today when the wedding license was made public.

Rev. Clifford Mason performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives at the Barton home. The romance is an old story, extending back to the school days of the couple in Sacramento, where both lived for years coming to Oakland. After becoming engaged in the theatrical business in Sacramento, Wenzel came to Oakland to assume charge of the Macdonough. Miss Barton, on finishing school, accepted the treasurer's office.

The bride is well known in Oakland society and the news of the wedding today came as a surprise to even their close associates in theatrical circles. The couple will make their home in Oakland.

GERMANS HONOR
RED CROSS UNITS

Breslau Offers Veritable Ovation Upon Arrival of American Delegates.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Hospitality that marked the reception of Red Cross units delegated to Germany and Austria-Hungary, upon their arrival in Breslau, was described today in a report from Consul Seltzer to the state department. They were officially received by Dr. Von Gumbert, chief-consul of Silesia, Consul Seltzer, the Austria-Hungarian consul general, Von Puttner, and officials of the Breslau branch of the Red Cross. A luncheon in their honor was given that evening, the report said, and so great was the crowd that gathered outside the hotel that police had to make way for the automobiles which carried the units for Austria to the railway station. The tables were decorated with American flags and the singing of patriotic songs was a feature. "The delegates were unanimous in their expression that this was the best reception they had received anywhere," Consul Seltzer reported.

Of the luncheon which was tendered the Red Cross nurses to Germany, the report adds:

"At the conclusion of the program when the orchestra played the 'Star Spangled Banner' and the delegates united in singing this hymn, the entire audience arose and sang with them, their kind respect for America. This sentiment seems to be universal in Germany, but the delegates say it was nowhere so forcibly demonstrated as in Breslau."

Mines Jeopardize Holland's Coast

THE HAGUE, via London, Nov. 19.—Holland's difficult position as a result of the European war is shown by one week's reports from the coast and frontiers. Along the coast, eighty miles of beach, and the English make have come ashore and exploding caused the death of nine persons and the wounding of five.

Over 100 bodies, presumably of British sailors from sunken warships, have been washed ashore and buried with military honors. Along the southern frontier nearly 250 Belgians, who had been hiding from the Germans, surrendered to the Dutch army. They crossed the frontier in civilian clothes and carried on their backs a number of cartridges in bags and claimed protection in the Dutch international detention camps, saying that otherwise they would starve. Since the beginning of the cold weather a dozen Germans have crossed into Holland, surrendered their arms and been sent to the detention camps.

On November 17 an apparently damaged war balloon floating at a great height, passed over the southern province and disappeared in an easterly direction.

On November 16 a German border patrol near Nieuweschans opened fire on Dutch frontier guards, mistaking them for smugglers and jeffers. Through trains to Germany have been abolished, while the trip across the North sea to England, which formerly required seven hours, now takes 27 hours.

LOUVAIN UNIVERSITY
MEN AT NOTRE DAME

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 19.—The faculty of the University of Louvain, Belgium, as well as a number of students of that institution, are expected to take refuge at the University of Notre Dame until conditions in Belgium permit the resumption of university classes there.

President John J. Neumann of Notre Dame today cabled Cardinal Mercier, the chancellor of Louvain, extending the hospitality of the American institution and offering the facilities of classes and research work without expense.

The cardinal has been requested to select a number of the more promising members of the student body to spend several years here in the study of languages, during which time they would be supported by the university. These students will be cared for without charge for board, lodging or tuition.

"SIMPLICITY," WAR-TIME SLOGAN OF DEBUTANTES

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19.—Thirty-four of the debutantes who will make their bows to Baltimore society within the next few weeks have signed an agreement which insures an absence of rivalry in elegance in their respective social functions, and to refrain from extravagance in entertainments.

Announcement was made today, in view of the widespread misery caused by the war, that the debutantes have agreed that the entertainments to be given by them will be free from extravagance, in order that larger contributions may be made for the relief of suffering both at home and abroad.

The hope is expressed that those entering the debutantes will "co-operate in this effort toward simplicity."

WOMAN HIT BY AUTO.

Cecilia Zepf, of 212 Second street and Claremont avenue, was knocked down by a motor car driven by Paul A. Spotts, 1520 Telegraph avenue. The woman was badly shaken up and received bruises over the right eye. She was carried by a car to the hospital and was driving at only about twelve miles an hour when Mrs. Zepf attempted to cross in front of him he turned sharply and ran his machine up on the sidewalk.

WATCH FOR SPIES.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Nov. 19.—Guards who are on duty at the Toronto power plant have reported to their commanding officer that they had seen mysterious lights, believed to be signals, flashing on the American shore long after midnight. The militiamen declare the lights were held so as to form different combinations. A close watch is being kept for spies.

Czar's General Staff Reports Skirmish in Valley of Olti Su.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 19.—An official communication issued by the general staff of the Russian army dated November 17, states that Turkish reinforcements have been sent to the frontier of the province of Euphrat, where some skirmishes have taken place. The statement continues:
